

Let Us Remember

Memory has many values to us, one important one is its prompt toward _____, to offer _____.

Remembrance of what Christ has done for us elicits deep expressions of gratitude, as expressed so well by Peter in his first letter, chapter 1:3 - 9.

God's hand at work in our lives leads to the appreciation that life is ...

- _____ ... precious
- _____ ... its truth and value to be shared
- _____ ... having long-term implications

King Hezekiah's experience in Isaiah 38 provides insight for us today.

"But what can I say?" (verse 15)

- I will _____ all my years (15)
- Lord, by such things _____ (16)
 - In your love you _____ (17)
--- daily grace (_____ what I don't deserve)
 - Put all my _____ behind your back (17)
--- daily mercy (_____ what I deserve)
 - The living, the living --- they _____ You (19)
--- daily gratitude (expressing _____)
 - Fathers tell their children about Your faithfulness (19)
--- daily legacy (_____ passed forward)

Remember to ... reflect ... thank ... forgive ... tell ... create moments journal ... participate!

Remember!
