EDY & JOE HENDERSON

The Edy and Joe Henderson Endowment

The Santa Cruz County Symphony Association Board, staff, and extended family of volunteers and friends wish to recognize Edy and Joe Henderson for their leadership in the community, their passion for music education, and especially for their commitment to the Santa Cruz County Symphony.

Though our hearts are heavy with the loss of our dear friends, we choose to meet this exciting new season with the joy and enthusiasm that Edy and Joe would have brought to our 56th year.

Edy was our incoming President of the Association Board, as well as last year's Board Member of the Year. With their passing, we have created The Edy and Joe Henderson Endowment as a lasting memorial in their honor.

As in the case of most endowments, the contributions will be permanently held in reserve. Each year a portion of the fund will be used to sponsor our Maestro in perpetuity, in memory of Edy and Joe.

Please send your contributions to The Santa Cruz County Symphony Endowment referencing The Edy and Joe Henderson Endowment in the memo field.

The Santa Cruz County Symphony Endowment

The Santa Cruz County Symphony Endowment was established in 2008 during the 50th season of the Symphony. This fund seeks to establish a legacy of giving from those who wish to see their contributions reach far into the future, to ensure that live music will always be available to our community. Each year, a portion of the Symphony Endowment will be used to fund the ongoing needs of the Santa Cruz County Symphony. There are many ways to contribute to the Endowment: through planned giving in one's estate, through charitable remainder trusts, marketable securities, or other assets.

A grateful Thank You to Endowment Contributors

Many Friends of the Symphony have already contributed to The Santa Cruz County Symphony Endowment, or have listed the Symphony Endowment as a beneficiary in their wills. Please let the Symphony office know if you have named the Endowment in your will or trust, so that we can keep you informed on Legacy member events.
