Our SBAC is more than just a building. It is a place for gathering with others, sharing the message, and supporting one another. Purchase a chip for a newcomer; give someone a cup of coffee; look over our supply of books, cards, and chips. Most of all, enjoy our beautiful club.

South Bay Alano Club Mission Statement

“...SBAC is an organization to aid and assist in the rehabilitation of Alcoholics. It maintains a club and club rooms as a meeting place for the rehabilitation and recreation of its members and friends....”

Why Your Membership Matters.

Your membership to SBAC ensures future AA meetings and gives you discounts at the coffee bar and events.

SBAC provides a place for AA members to meet, socialize, and actively be a part of the fellowship of AA.

Your membership fee contributes to providing a well-maintained, clean and safe environment for those who gather and meet at the club to participate and practice the principles of the AA program that keeps us sober.

“That, my friends, is why your membership matters.” Dan E.
