

A New Thing

Isaiah 43:16-21 . December 31, 2017

Isaiah 43:16–17

This is what the LORD says— he who made a way through the sea, a path through the mighty waters, who drew out the chariots and horses, the army and reinforcements together, and they lay there, never to rise again, extinguished, snuffed out like a wick:

Isaiah 43:18–19

“Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland.”

God's plan is consistent and unchanging.

(Numbers 23:19, Hebrews 13:8, James 1:17)

God is always doing something new.

(Lamentations 3:23, Revelation 21:5)

Isaiah 45:13

I will raise up Cyrus in my righteousness: I will make all his ways straight. He will rebuild my city and set my exiles free, but not for a price or reward, says the LORD Almighty.

Isaiah 43:20–21

The wild animals honor me, the jackals and the owls, because I provide water in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland, to give drink to my people, my chosen, the people I formed for myself that they may proclaim my praise.

Isaiah 43:19

See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?

- What has God consistently been doing in and around your life? How is His character constant?
- What “new thing” do you perceive God doing?
- How can you join God in what He is doing and proclaim His praise?
