GOD-sized:

Don't Stop Now

Nehemiah 4 . November 10, 2019

Nehemiah 4:1–2

When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became angry and was greatly incensed. He ridiculed the Jews, and in the presence of his associates and the army of Samaria, he said, “What are those feeble Jews doing? Will they restore their wall? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish in a day?”

Nehemiah 4:2–3

“Can they bring the stones back to life from those heaps of rubble—burned as they are?”

Tobiah the Ammonite, who was at his side, said, “What they are building—even a fox climbing up on it would break down their wall of stones!”

Nehemiah 4:4–5

Hear us, our God, for we are despised. Turn their insults back on their own heads. Give them over as plunder in a land of captivity. Do not cover up their guilt or blot out their sins from your sight, for they have thrown insults in the face of the builders.

Nehemiah 4:6–7

So we rebuilt the wall till all of it reached half its height, for the people worked with all their heart. But when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites and the people of Ashdod heard that the repairs to Jerusalem's walls had gone ahead and that the gaps were being closed, they were very angry.

Nehemiah 4:8–9

They all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and stir up trouble against it.

But we prayed to our God and posted a guard day and night to meet this threat.

“Do not pray for easy lives. Pray to be stronger men! Do not pray for tasks equal to your powers. Pray for power equal to your tasks. Prayer is not conquering God's reluctance, but taking hold of God's willingness.”

-Phillips Brooks (1886)

Nehemiah 4:10–12

Meanwhile, the people in Judah said, “The strength of the laborers is giving out, and there is so much rubble that we cannot rebuild the wall.”

Also our enemies said, “Before they know it or see us, we will be right there among them and will kill them and put an end to the work.”

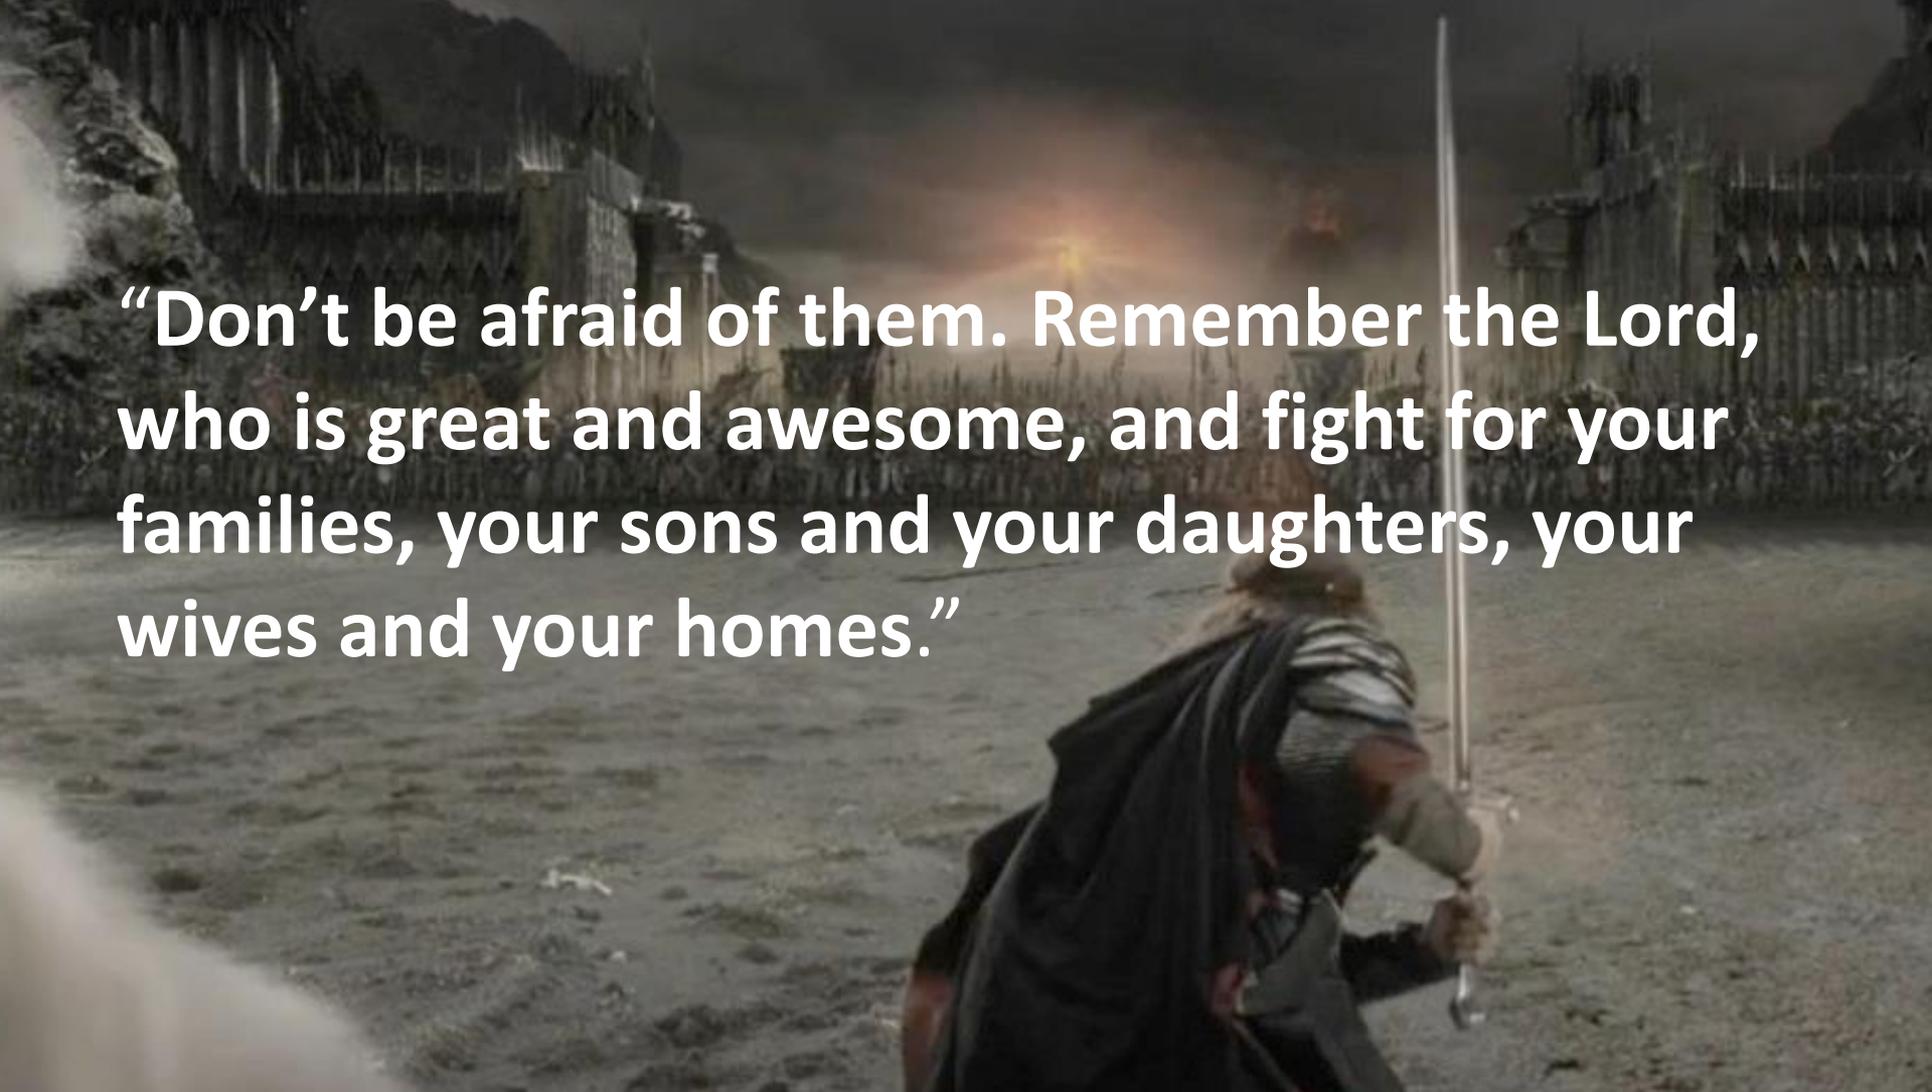

Then the Jews who lived near them came and told us ten times over, “Wherever you turn, they will attack us.”

Nehemiah 4:13-14

Therefore I stationed some of the people behind the lowest points of the wall. At the exposed places, posting them by families, with their swords, spears and bows. After I looked things over, I stood up and said to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, “Don’t be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your families, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your homes.”

A warrior in a dark, hooded cloak is shown from the back, holding a sword. The warrior is standing in a desolate, dark landscape with a bright light source in the distance. The warrior's cloak is dark and textured, and the sword is held in their right hand. The background is a dark, hazy landscape with a bright light source in the distance, possibly a sun or a fire. The overall mood is somber and dramatic.

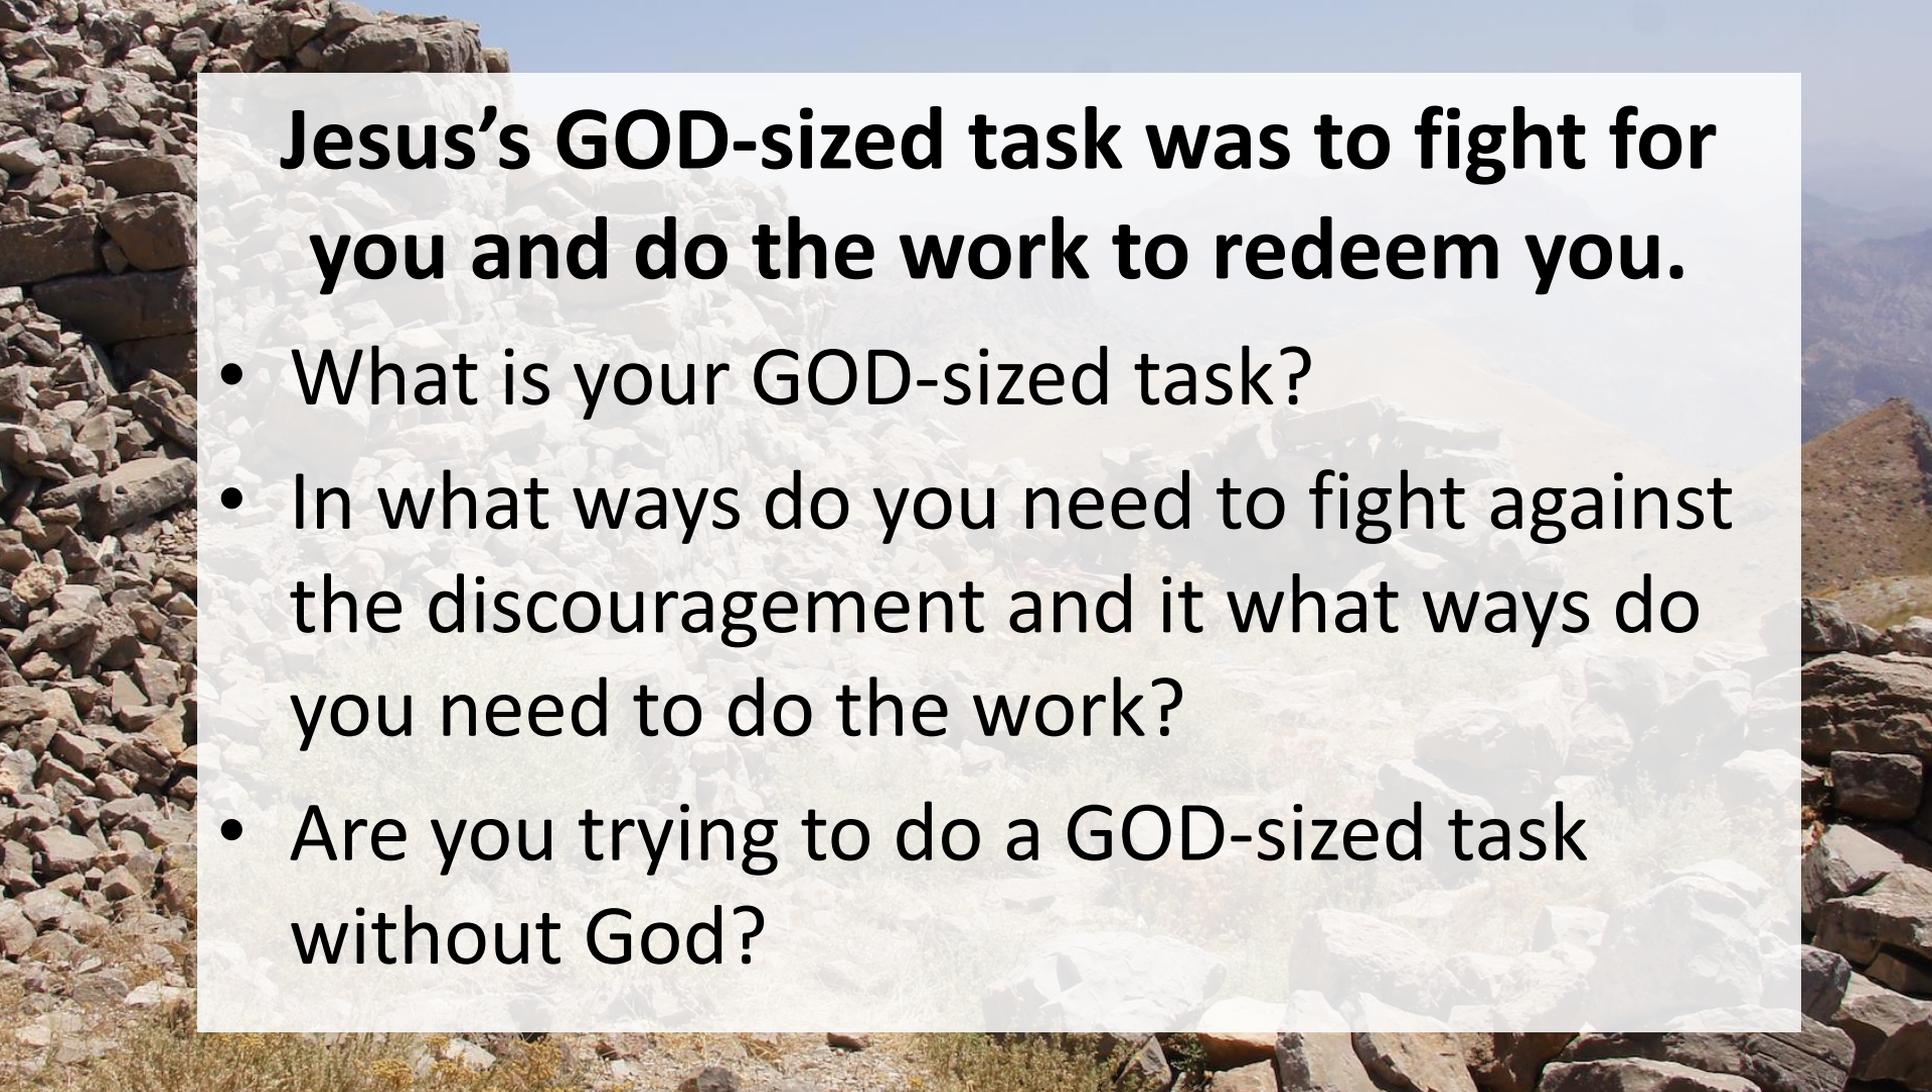

“Don’t be afraid of them. Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your families, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your homes.”

Nehemiah 4:15–16

When our enemies heard that we were aware of their plot and that God had frustrated it, we all returned to the wall, each to his own work. From that day on, half of my men did the work, while the other half were equipped with spears, shields, bows and armor.

Nehemiah 4:17–18

The officers posted themselves behind all the people of Judah who were building the wall. Those who carried materials did their work with one hand and held a weapon in the other, and each of the builders wore his sword at his side as he worked.

The background of the slide is a photograph of a rugged, rocky mountain landscape. The foreground and middle ground are filled with large, light-colored rocks and boulders. In the distance, there are more rocky peaks under a clear, bright sky. The overall scene is bright and somewhat hazy, suggesting a high-altitude or mountainous environment. A large, semi-transparent white rectangle is overlaid on the center of the image, containing the text.

Jesus's GOD-sized task was to fight for you and do the work to redeem you.

- What is your GOD-sized task?
- In what ways do you need to fight against the discouragement and in what ways do you need to do the work?
- Are you trying to do a GOD-sized task without God?
