

Stop Running Away

Isaiah 30:15-18

Isaiah 30:15

This is what the Sovereign LORD,
the Holy One of Israel, says:
In repentance and rest is your salvation,
in quietness and trust is your strength,
but you would have none of it.

A lone brown horse stands on a vast, golden sand dune under a clear blue sky. The horse is positioned in the center-left of the frame, facing right. The dunes are smooth and undulating, with soft shadows cast across them. The overall scene is serene and desolate.

Isaiah 30:16-17

You said, 'No, we will flee on horses.' Therefore you will flee!
You said, 'We will ride off on swift horses.' Therefore your pursuers will be swift! A thousand will flee at the threat of one;
at the threat of five you will all flee away, till you are left like a flagstaff on a mountaintop, like a banner on a hill.

Isaiah 30:18

Yet the LORD longs to be gracious to you; therefore he will rise up to show you compassion. For the LORD is a God of justice. Blessed are all who wait for him!

Be Still My Soul

Be still my soul the Lord is on thy side
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain
Leave to thy God to order and provide
In every change He faithful will remain
Be still my soul thy best, thy heavenly friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end

Be still, my soul: Thy God doth undertake
To guide the future as he has the past.
Thy hope, thy confidence let nothing shake;
All now mysterious shall be bright at last.
Be still, my soul: The waves and winds still know
His voice who ruled them while he dwelt below.
