

Blue Chalksticks

Curio Repens

- I'm a powdery blue succulent with beautiful, cylindrical leaves. In mid-summer to early fall, I'll bloom little white flowers.
- I love full, direct sunlight, so a south-facing window is the best place for me.
- In winter, I only need enough water to keep my leaves from wilting. In warmer months, soak my soil every couple weeks.

