

Little Gem

Cremnosedum 'Little Gem'

- I'm a small, tightly clustered succulent with leaves that turn a beautiful shade of copper in full sun.
- I'll bloom yellow flowers in late winter to early spring.
- Like other Sedums, I need very little care to thrive. Give me a good watering every 3-4 weeks (or whenever you remember) and keep me anywhere I'll get a full day of sun.

