

SCALLOP HYBRID

KALANCHOE MARNIERIANA

Native to Madagascar, she is a flowering succulent with flat, pale green leaves that have scalloped pink edges

Required water when soil is completely dry; typically every 2-3 weeks

Loves direct, bright sunshine, but also thrives under a grow lamp

Flowers from leaves will propagate into a new plant quickly and easily

Can be harmful to pets