STUDIO CITY, CA – August 13th, 2020 – Award-winning screen legends Jon Voight (“Ray Donovan,” Coming Home, Midnight Cowboy) and James Caan (The Godfather, Misery, “Las Vegas”) reunite in this long-awaited sequel to the Hallmark Movies & Mysteries original “JL Family Ranch,” which premiered in 2016. Joining Voight and Caan in “JL Family Ranch: The Wedding Gift,” a new original premiering Sunday, September 27th (9 p.m. ET/PT), is an all-star cast that includes Teri Polo (Meet the Parents, Meet the Fockers), Bo Derek (10, Bolero), Trevor Donovan (“90210”), Skyler Shaye (“Grey’s Anatomy,” “Family Affair”), Abby Brammell (“The Unit,” Jobs), Dylan Walsh (“Nip/Tuck,” “Unforgettable,” Congo) and Judson Mills (“Walker, Texas Ranger,” “As the World Turns”).

While John Landsburg (Voight) and his family prepare the ranch for the opening of their new bed & breakfast, a surprise proposal puts plans for Rebecca’s (Polo) wedding front and center, with beautiful wedding planner Claudia Dupree (Derek) taking an immediate liking to the diehard cowboy family patriarch. However, the unexpected reappearance of Landsburg family adversary Tap Peterson’s (Caan) son after a 20-year absence brings with it a truckload of unresolved issues, including Caleb Peterson’s (Mills) abandonment of Rebecca and their unborn child, who is now grown up and desperate for a relationship with her father. However, when Caleb’s past catches up with him, Tap must put his entire fortune and the Peterson Ranch on the line in order to redeem his son.

“JL Family Ranch: The Wedding Gift” is from SP Entertainment and Brookwell McNamara Entertainment. Executive producers are Jamee Natella and Sean McNamara. The movie is produced by Steven Paul. Kyle Otto and Sweta Rai serve as supervising producers. Sean McNamara directed from a script written by Mark Hefti from a story by Steven Paul.
