

TABLETOPICS

⁵You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. ⁶And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. ⁷You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise.

DEUTERONOMY 6:5-7 (ESV)

The following “Table Topics” are intended to keep the weekend message on our hearts and minds throughout the week! We pray this resource stirs personal engagement and reflection, as well as conversations with others around the Word of God. Take a few moments with your spouse in the morning, text a friend, or discuss one of the questions around the dinner table. Let’s fill our days and conversations with the Truth and spiritual bread we need every day!

1. Read John 15:1-17. If possible, read this passage in two or more versions.
2. What are the necessary elements of “abiding” or “remaining” in Christ?
3. When do you feel most close to Christ and walking with Him?
4. What does “bearing fruit” look like as we walk in the Spirit?
5. Look at verse 13. In a practical way, give some examples of what it looks like when we lay our lives down for one another. Think beyond the one-time, sacrificial act of giving up one’s life for another. What does verse 13 look like on a daily basis?
6. What should drive our motivation each day? (see verse 14)
7. What is your “takeaway” from this passage?
