

TABLETOPICS

⁵You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. ⁶And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. ⁷You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise.

DEUTERONOMY 6:5-7 (ESV)

The following “Table Topics” are intended to keep the weekend message on our hearts and minds throughout the week! We pray this resource stirs personal engagement and reflection, as well as conversations with others around the Word of God. Take a few moments with your spouse in the morning, text a friend, or discuss one of the questions around the dinner table. Let’s fill our days and conversations with the Truth and spiritual bread we need every day!

1. Read John 14:7-14
2. How do you connect to the word, “Father” used in Scripture? Good or bad, what comes to your mind when you read or hear someone use the word “father”?
3. How has Jesus shown us the true nature and character of our Heavenly Father? Give a few examples.
4. How did the disciples miss seeing the Father in Jesus and Jesus being in the Father? What is the evidence that points to Jesus being in the Father and the Father being in Jesus?
5. How is this relationship essential to our own lives?
6. How are we able to do greater works than what Jesus did amongst His disciples? (v. 12)
7. How has your concept of prayer changed during your walk with Christ?
8. What has helped you to “know” Christ better? On a scale of 1-10, where are you at today in your relationship to Christ and why?
