

MANUFACTURER'S DECLARATION

with regard to

DIRECTIVE 2011/65/EU OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL of 8 June 2011
on the restriction of the use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment
(recast)

This directive defines stipulations for the restriction of the use of hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment in order to make a contribution to the protection of human health and the environment, including environmentally friendly recycling and disposal of old electrical and electronic equipment.

Directive 2011/65/EU completely replaced its predecessor, Directive 2002/95/EC, on 3 January 2013. Both directives are unofficially abbreviated to RoHS (Restriction of Hazardous Substances).

Franz Binder GmbH & Co. Elektrische Bauelemente KG herewith confirms that all standard articles conform to the above-mentioned directive. Our products contain none of the forbidden substances listed in the RoHS II directive in concentrations that exceed the maximum permissible concentration defined therein taking into account exceptions pursuant to Annex III of this directive.
