ITINERARY

The itinerary outlined in this brochure is an indication of sequence and sites to be included in the tour program. The tour operator reserves the right to alter or change the itinerary and/or the sites included should it be deemed necessary due to local conditions, time restrictions or other circumstances.

Friday, May 31 : Depart

Depart from John F. Kennedy Airport on your overnight flight to Tel Aviv.

Saturday, June 1 : Tel Aviv

Arrive into Tel Aviv this morning, board the motorcoach and enjoy lunch and a short walking tour of Joppa. Drive a short way to seaside hotel in Tel Aviv for dinner and overnight.

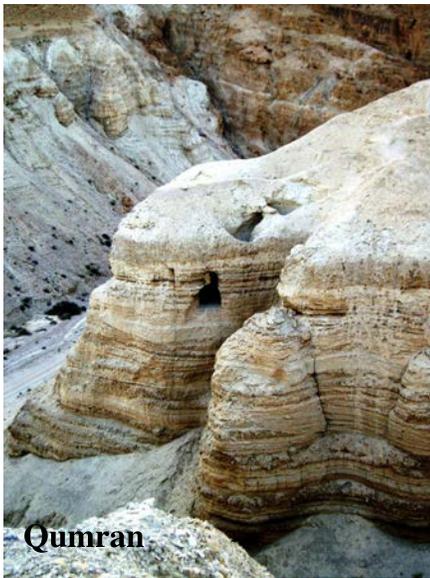

Sunday, June 2: Desert Area

After breakfast, travel to Bet Guvrin (Maresha), land of a thousand caves. Drive through the Valley of Elah, where David encountered Goliath. Drive by Beth Shemesh, the site where the Ark was returned to Israel after it had been captured by the Philistines and brought disaster to the cities of Ashdod, Gath, and Ekron. Continue onto Tel Beersheva archaeological site and visit nearby Tel Arad, a Canaanite city with an early Israel fortress containing a Holy of Holies, fashioned after the temple in Jerusalem. Proceed to Dead Sea Hotel for dinner and overnight.

Monday, June 3 : Dead Sea Area

After breakfast, drive to the nature reserve at En Gedi, the region where David fled from King Saul and cut off a part of his robe in a cave. Continue with a drive along the Dead Sea to Masada. Take the cable car to the top, visiting Herod's mountain palace and the last stronghold of the Jewish revolt against Rome (68-73 AD). Return to the hotel with free time to float in the Dead Sea, have a spa treatment, walk or rest. Dinner and overnight at the hotel.

ITINERARY CONTINUED

Qumran

Mt Arbel at the Sea of Galilee

Tuesday, June 4 : Jordan River Valley

This morning travel to Qumran for a view of the caves which contained the Dead Sea scrolls. After a stop in Jericho, visit Beth Shean (the Greek city of Scythopolis) to view the setting for the death of Saul. Survey the magnificent Roman and Byzantine ruins, the theater, bathhouses, ancient rest rooms, market areas, and colonnaded streets. Continue onto the hotel overlooking the Sea of Galilee for dinner and overnight.

Wednesday, June 5 : Galilee (Around the Lake)

Begin the day with a boat ride on the Sea of Galilee. Disembark at Kibbutz Nof Ginosar to view the "Jesus Boat," found buried under an exposed section of the lake bed during a drought in 1986. Visit the ancient synagogue recently unearthed in Magdala, believed to be the town of Mary Magdalene. Stop at the Mount of Beatitudes, where Jesus preached the Sermon on the Mount. Then stop at the Church of St. Peter's Restoration at Tabgha. Continue to Capernaum, the center of Jesus' ministry in the Galilee. Visit the synagogue and the place where early Christians remembered Peter's house. Drive to Bethsaida, one of the three cities cursed by Jesus for failing to repent. Stop at the Kursi overlook for a photo opportunity of Tiberias and the entire Sea of Galilee. Return to the hotel for dinner and overnight.

Thursday, June 6 : Galilee (Northern Border area)

Begin the day at Chorazin, one of the towns cursed by Jesus for refusing to repent. Drive on an ancient trade route to Hazor, the center of the coalition of kings that opposed Joshua and was subsequently destroyed by the Israelites in the conquest of the land. Continue north to Dan Nature Reserve, the center of cultic calf worship set up by Jeroboam I. Stop at nearby Caesarea Philippi (Baniyas), where Peter answered Jesus' question, "Who do you say that I am?" Drive through the Golan Heights on the way to the hotel for dinner and overnight.

Friday, June 7 : Nazareth – Galilee

Drive south of Nazareth in the cliffs of Mt. Kedumim to Mt. Precipice, and view the Jezreel Valley from here. Continue to Megiddo, the city that dominated this strategic trade route from Egypt to Mesopotamia. Explore the extensive excavations including Ahab's stables, a grain silo, and an ancient underground water system. Next, ascend Mount Carmel, site of Elijah's confrontation with the prophets of Baal. Continue to Yardenit, a baptismal site on the Jordan River, where opportunity for baptisms will be offered. Return to the hotel for dinner and overnight.

Aqueducts at Caesarea

Church of the Holy Sepulchre

Saturday, June 8 : Coastal Plains – Jerusalem

Travel eastward to the Mediterranean Coast for a visit to Caesarea Maritima. See the famous Roman theater, harbor and aqueduct. Make our way up to Jerusalem to the Mount of Olives for an orientation to the city. Walk downhill on Palm Sunday Road, stopping at the Chapel of Dominus Flevit and continuing onto the Garden of Gethsemane and the Church of All Nations. Check into the Jerusalem hotel for dinner and overnight.

Sunday, June 9 : Jerusalem

Begin the day exploring excavations at the City of David, including the Pool of Siloam and Hezekiah's Tunnel. Explore the ruins near the south side of the Temple complex, including steps where we can be certain that Jesus and the disciples walked. Drive to Mount Zion to visit the Church of St. Peter in Gallicantu, which affords the best view of early Jerusalem from the west. Visit the Israel Museum and the Shrine of the Book, which houses the Dead Sea Scrolls and view a model of Jerusalem, representing how the city looked on the eve of the Jewish revolt, 36 years after the Passion of Jesus. Return to the hotel for dinner and overnight.

Monday, June 10 : Jerusalem

Enter the Old City through the Dung Gate. Ascend to the Dome of the Rock and the al-Aqsa Mosque, the third holiest site of Islam, located on the traditional site of the ancient Temple Mount. Walk through the Jewish Quarter to see the Roman Cardo, with stones that were street level during the time of Christ. See part of the excavated Broad Wall built by King Hezekiah and a replica of a Byzantine mosaic map of the Old City. Walk through the excavations of the Rabbi's Tunnel, near the Western Wall, to examine the length of the outer Herodian Temple wall, including two stone blocks weighing about 600 tons each. Visit the Holocaust Museum, Yad Vashem, this afternoon. Return to the hotel for dinner and overnight.

Tuesday, June 11 : Jerusalem

This morning, visit the Pools of Bethesda and St. Anne's Church, perfectly preserved from the Crusader period, with remarkable acoustics. Next see Antonia Fortress, built by King Herod to protect the Temple Mount. Conclude the tour at Gordon's Calvary with a celebration of Communion at the Garden Tomb. Enjoy some free time for packing, last-minute shopping and explorations. After an early dinner, transfer to the Ben Gurion Airport for departure.

Wednesday, June 12 : USA

Arrive home this morning with fond memories of our time in the Holy Land.

TOUR FEATURES & CONDITIONS

Please read all Tour Features and Conditions carefully.
Payment of tour deposit constitutes acceptance of these conditions.

Rates & Fare Information: Rates are based on a minimum of 40 people traveling together. Fewer tour participants will result in a price increase. The quoted tour price is based on the current rate of exchange. Fluctuation in the foreign exchange rate can result in price increase. Transportation from your home to departure city and return, specialty beverages with dinners, passport or visa fees, travel protection plan, excess baggage fees, domestic air travel and expenses of a purely personal nature are not included.

Raptim Cancellation Conditions: The cancellation conditions outlined below apply to all passenger initiated cancellations. Should circumstances require that the passenger cancel, written notice of cancellation must be received by Raptim in order to secure any available refund.

Prior to 10 Jan 2019	$250 cancellation penalty
From 10 Jan to 1 Apr 2019	$750 cancellation penalty
After 1 Apr 2019	No refund

Protect Your Investment: A group travel protection plan is available to cover medical expenses, medical evacuation & repatriation, trip cancellation or interruption, trip delay, baggage loss and/or delay. A pre-existing condition exclusion waiver is available if coverage is purchased up to and including time of final payment. Further information can be found on the travel Insurance tab of the tour website or by contacting your Raptim consultant.

Air Transportation: Air transportation is restricted to the services of any IATA carrier, in economy class based on nonrefundable fare. Travelers are responsible to provide their names as they appear in their passport. Air tickets will be issued 30-45 days prior to departure, after which there will be a charge for name corrections. Tour price includes current airline taxes and fuel surcharges, which are subject to change until ticketed. Tour participants are responsible for any increase in airline taxes or fuel surcharges imposed by the airline.

Baggage, Seating and Frequent Flyer Info: Please advise your travel consultant of any special seating needs due to health or mobility, or note under "Airline Seat Request" when registering. All seat requests and frequent flyer information is submitted to the airline at the time of ticketing. There is no guarantee that all seat requests will be honored by the contracted airline and changes should be requested at check-in by the traveler. To ensure proper crediting, present frequent flyer information to the airline agent at check-in and retain your boarding passes to verify your mileage credits after travel. Each passenger is allowed one suitcase, not to exceed 62 dimensional inches (L + W + H) or weigh more than 50 pounds. Due to limited luggage storage space on tour buses, it is important that each person bring only ONE piece of checked baggage. Any carry-on luggage must be handled by the passenger at all times. Baggage allowance is subject to change according to airline policy.

Deviations: Individuals making changes in travel arrangements apart from this group program will be charged a service fee of $100 per person, plus any additional air or land costs incurred.

Transfers, Accommodations and Meals: Group transfers between airports and hotels upon arrival and departure are included, as well as handling of ONE piece of luggage at hotels upon check-in and check-out. Pricing is based on two people sharing a room in deluxe hotels. Single rooms are subject to availability at an additional charge. If a passenger cannot supply a roommate, the passenger is responsible for the additional charge. In-flight meals and snacks are served according to airline policy. During the tour, breakfast, lunch and dinner will be provided daily.

Gratuity, Taxes and Entrance Fees: A healthy gratuity has been included in order to bless and thank the people who serve us along our journey. All taxes and fees for accommodations and sightseeing are included as indicated in itinerary, using private tour buses or other conveyance, with local guides where necessary. Tips for personal services (taxis, room service, etc.) are not included.

Passport, Visa & Health Requirements: A valid passport is required. If you do not have a passport, you should apply for one immediately. For more information on obtaining or renewing a U.S. passport can be found at <http://travel.state.gov>. If you now have a passport, please verify that it is valid until 30 Nov 2019. A visa for Israel is not required for U.S. citizens. Non-U.S. citizens are responsible to fulfill entry requirements for countries to be visited by contacting the appropriate consulates. No inoculations are required, but please check with your physician for their recommendation. In the ever-changing world situation, Raptim recommends personal monitoring of news about your destination. For the latest information from the U.S. Dept. of State, please visit <http://www.state.gov/travel/>.

Accessibility and Physical Abilities: Regulations for persons with disabilities while traveling outside the U.S. are very limited. Few international destinations have modified hotel rooms and tourist sites are not required to have ramps or elevators. Tour participation is available to all travelers and will not be withheld if the traveler can furnish the requirements that may be needed to travel safely and comfortably. Most tours require guests to have the ability to climb stairs without assistance, walk long distances at a modest pace over uneven terrain and transport personal luggage to/from the motor-coach. Travelers that have a medical condition which might limit participation in activities, should consult their physician before booking. Should any traveler's participation somehow add materially to the tour operator's cost, the participant will be expected to pay any additional costs. The tour planner and/or tour guide retains the right to require any non-sufficiently mobile persons to stay behind when deemed necessary, and also terminate the participation of any traveler displaying disruptive behavior, delaying or endangering fellow members and/or interfering with the operations of the tour.

NOTE: If you require assistance during travel, it is necessary for a traveling companion to accompany you at your own expense.

Raptim Humanitarian Travel and Bible Study Fellowship, its employees, agents, officers, shareholders and staff assume no responsibility or liability in connection with the services of any train, vessel, carriage, automobile, airplane or other conveyance, anticipated to be used or which is used, either wholly or in part, in any travels. Raptim Humanitarian Travel and Bible Study Fellowship, its employees, agents, officers, shareholders and staff are not and will not be responsible and the passenger fully releases Raptim Humanitarian Travel and Bible Study Fellowship, its employees, agents, officers, shareholders and staff for and from any act, error or omission, or any resulting expense or any injury to person or property (including death), other loss, accident, or any delays which may be occasioned, by reason of defect in any vehicle or through neglect or default of any company or persons engaged in the conveying of passengers including but not limited to any steamer, airplane services or that of any other conveyance, or through any sickness, accident, weather, strikes, war, quarantine or other causes, and all such losses, injury and expenses must be and will be borne solely by the passenger. Prices and schedules appearing in this brochure are based on current schedules and tariff rates and are subject to change without notice. The tour operator reserves the right to modify the itinerary where deemed necessary or caused by changes in air or other schedules. The airlines and/or other transportation companies concerned are not to be held responsible for any act, omission or event during the time passengers are not aboard their plane or conveyance. The passage contract in use by the airlines concerned, when issued, shall constitute the sole contract between the airlines and purchaser of tours and/or the passenger.
