Before I could stand you lifted me
Before I could walk you ran to me
Before I could live you died for me
No Greater Love than what you've done x2

In my heart I will Praise Your name
In my soul I'm forever changed
In my life I'll trust in you alone
In my heart and in my soul

Beautiful Creator King
To know Your presence is what I seek
A nearness to You is all I need
No greater love than what you've done

As the Brightness of Your love appears
In my heart in my soul I will not fear
Your glory shines dark disappears
In my heart in my soul x2
