

A Woman Who Fears The LORD . . .

(A Study on Proverbs 31)

Reaches Out To The Needy

INTRODUCTION

The love that A Woman Who Fears the LORD has for God compels her to reach out to the poor and needy. She not only extends her hands to the needs of her loved ones, but also has a compassionate heart that touches and helps those who are physically as well as spiritually destitute. Her love for God enables the needy to see and know Him.

Scripture declares that God is good, compassionate, tenderhearted and full of mercy. In His great love for mankind, He sent His Only Begotten Son who became poor so that man could become spiritually rich. His mission on this earth is to set free those who are captive to sin, to feed the hungry, minister to the hurting, heal the sick and brokenhearted. Though He is the Son of God, Christ can identify with mankind through His birth in a stable, His lowly work as a carpenter and the humble way that He lived. In His death He entered our deepest pain by taking on Himself the blame for the sin and suffering of the world. Through the miracle of His resurrection, those who have confessed Him as LORD, whether they be rich or poor, will inherit spiritual life on this earth as well as life everlasting in the life to come.

THEME SCRIPTURE

MEMORY VERSE

If you extend your soul to the hungry and satisfy the afflicted soul, then your light shall dawn in the darkness, and your darkness shall be as the noonday (Isaiah 58:10).

<sup>1</sup> extends: stretch forth, spread abroad, spread self out; enlarge.

<sup>2</sup> reaches: reach forth to touch.
