

POTIPHAR'S WIFE AND DELILAH: WOMEN OF SEDUCTION

INTRODUCTION

God created woman to be a help meet<sup>1</sup> to man (Genesis 2:18). Eve was tempted and seduced to sin by Satan and in turn she enticed her husband to sin (Genesis 3:1-6). From the moment sin entered the world, women who have yielded to Satan's deception and their own lusts have been used to destroy even the most godly of men. Rather than being a helper, some women have been tempted to manipulate and control men. They use their charm, emotions, and other methods of seduction to get their way. This behavior has led to the destruction of innumerable men who have been caught in the web of the temptress<sup>2</sup>.

Two ungodly women in the Bible, who used seductive and lustful ways in an attempt to destroy men of God, were Potiphar's wife and Delilah. Although both women used sinful behavior in an attempt to destroy and dishonor these men, neither one was able to accomplish her purpose.

In studying Potiphar's wife and Delilah, we will discover some of the schemes that ungodly women use in the seduction of godly men. Most importantly, we will be personally challenged to look at our lives and examine ourselves to see if we practice deception, manipulation, and selfishness in the pursuit of our own desires.

SCRIPTURE MEMORY VERSE

SECTION 1 - Potiphar's Wife

Joseph was one of the twelve sons of Jacob and the favorite of his father which caused great conflict within the family. His brothers, being envious of him, were driven to sell him into slavery. He was taken to Egypt where he was sold to Potiphar. Despite his many difficulties and trials, he remained a man set apart for God. He honored and glorified God in his life. His experience with Potiphar's wife was just another event in which man meant to hurt him for evil but God used it for good.

Potiphar's wife was literally left holding Joseph's garment. She then proceeded to cover up her actions. She insulted her husband in front of the slaves by blaming him for bringing Joseph into the house. She then reminded her husband that it was his slave that attempted to rape her. All of these accusations were lies. Her attraction for Joseph vanished as her lust turned to hate.

10. In what ways do we see that God was with Joseph (vv. 21-23)? _____

WRITE verse 23b because . . . _____

Although godly and ungodly men experience temptation of this sort, we see that an adulterous, seductive woman, as beautiful as she may be, is not the true desire of a God fearing man. Potiphar's wife did not accomplish her purpose with Joseph, she could not destroy this young man, for he feared God and God was with him.

SECTION 2 - Manoah's Wife

The godly generation of Joshua passed away and another generation arose after them who did not know the Lord (Judges 2:6-10). The Israelites became rebellious and idolatrous; the behavior of this new generation angered the Lord. He delivered them into the hands of their enemies; however, because of their distress, they cried to the Lord and in His mercy, He raised up judges to deliver the Israelites (Judges 2:11-16). One judge that God raised up was Samson who was given tremendous victories over the Philistine enemies.

READ Judges Chapter 13.

1. What difficulties did Manoah and his wife face (vv. 1, 2)? _____

<sup>6</sup> crown of life - Greek miknew something bought, acquisition: Christ purchased the crown of victory over death with His life.

_____

3. What divine instructions were given (vv. 4, 5)? _____

For what purpose would the child be set apart? _____

_____

Manoah's wife went and told her husband all that had happened, how the Angel of the LORD told her that they would have a son and he would be a Nazarite until his death. The Nazarite vow was an oath to abstain from certain worldly influences and to live a life set apart to God (Numbers 6:1-8). Manoah prayed that the Angel of the LORD would return and show them how to teach this child. He did appear in answer to prayer and expressed that they follow all the instructions previously told to his wife (Judges 13:8-12).

4. Besides the promised child, what instructions was Manoah's wife to follow (Judges 13:13, 14)? _____

_____

_____

8. What did his wife believe (v. 23)? _____

_____

_____

<sup>9</sup> Angel of the LORD: a theophany (an appearance by God taking on a divine or human form in order to be visible to human beings) of the Person of Jesus Christ in the Old Testament (Judges 13:21, 22).

11

In Old Testament times, God's Spirit<sup>12</sup> would come upon His chosen people and empower them to do His will and accomplish specific purposes.

SECTION 3 - A Woman of Timnath

God moved by His Spirit upon Samson and he became a mighty man of valor. However, despite God's faithfulness in using him to deliver His distressed people, Samson's weakness was discovered; he was open to the seduction of ungodly women. Samson desired a woman from the enemies of his people to be his wife.

2. What did the enemies of Samson tell his wife to do (Judges 14:15)? _____

3. What manipulative ways did she use to get the answer to the riddle (vv. 16, 17)? _____

4. What were the consequences of Samson's wife's deceptive behavior (vv. 20, 15:1, 2)? _____

God continued to demonstrate that His anointing was upon Samson despite his foolish disobedience. His physical strength was shown in his victories over the Philistines.

PERSONAL

The word manipulate means to manage or control by shrewd use of influence, in a crafty or unfair and fraudulent way. Have you ever used someone's weakness or lack of knowledge to manipulate them to do what you desired? What were the results?

MEMORY VERSE

WRITE your memory verse and deeply consider its powerful meaning in your life.

---

(Proverbs 31:30).

Potiphar's wife and Delilah teach us that any woman yielded to her fleshly desires has the capability to destroy any man. These women were both driven by a need to satisfy self, with no thought for the lives of the men they would destroy. They remained heartless, uncompassionate, and cruel in their dealings with men. God desires that our love for Him and our fear of Him will motivate us to obey His Word. Each day we must choose to either be controlled by our lustful flesh or to choose the Fear of the LORD. As we have learned from these women, only when we choose to fear God will our lives have true meaning, purpose, and fulfillment.
