“The Power of Visibility”

Keynote presented by Nadia Jaboneta

In this keynote address, Nadia shares the story of her journey toward creating equitable and inclusive spaces for young children. She shares reflections about her childhood, education and her role as an early childhood educator. She highlights the importance of children being reflected in their learning environments so that they feel important and visible. She will also share the self-work, critical thinking and process that goes into social justice education.

Water will be served throughout the day.

Help us Go Green by bringing your reusable water bottle.
