

SOMETHING

Part 4

Forsaken

This past weekend Pastor Ken continued his seven-week Easter series entitled, Say Something. Over these seven weeks, we invite you to answer these questions with someone at work, your family, or find a place to do it alone or with a friend. Let's grow and do life together during this series.

"My God, my God, why have You forsaken me?" Matthew 27:46

1. Share about a time when you were in a dark place in your life.
2. Pastor Ken shared how Jesus took our place on the cross (read Isaiah 53:5) because someone has to pay the price for our sin. In the darkness, Jesus becomes our substitute and pays the price for every sin committed, past or future. Because of His sacrifice we can now rejoice (read Romans 5:11). Take a moment to thank Him.
3. At some point everyone one of us has asked the question: "why did this happen to me?" Pastor ken shared how Jesus took our questions to the cross. Maybe you are experiencing a season of darkness in your life at this time in your life. If so, share with the others and have them pray with you right now where you are.
4. Read Hebrews 4:14-16 and spend some time discussing it with the group.
5. Next we learned that Jesus takes our faith to the cross (read Psalm 22:1 and 24). Even in the darkness where He can't sense God, He still cries out because He believes God is still close enough to hear His cry. What a great example to us of faith even during the darkest moments of our lives (read Hebrews 13:5).
6. Pastor Ken is asking us to let this faith rub off on us during this Easter season.
