

5 STEPS to CREATING your EPIC LIFE

FOLLOW THESE 5 STEPS TO GET RESULTS THAT MAKE YOU PROUD, AND START LIVING A LIFE YOU'RE EXCITED ABOUT!

1. PRACTICE PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

Until you do the work on yourself, your ideal clients aren't going to be attracted to you. So much inside of you needs to come out. You have to show the world your true self so that your clients know that YOU are the right person to help them. And there can't be any fear of what other people might say or think standing in your way.

To conquer that fear, you have to know yourself, be there for yourself, and develop powerful habits so that you never self-abandon again. Once you become aware of the rules you've set up for yourself and where they came from, they'll no longer be able to stop you from getting your message out there.

And, taking good care of yourself is what's going to allow you to take great care of your clients. Because at the end of the day, you can't give what you don't have. You need a true sense of self, strong confidence, and the ability to set great boundaries, or else this "business thing" is going to completely overtake you.

This is your opportunity to get to know yourself on a deeper level, to give to yourself, and to build the proper personal development habits that will allow you to truly shine as the superstar you've always desired to be.

What areas of your personality do you most need to develop? I.E., overcoming fears, becoming confident, healing emotional wounds, establishing self worth, etc.

What will you do for yourself daily or weekly to implement this new practice?

What new boundaries and belief systems will you set?

What habits can you begin to develop today to avoid self-abandonment?

2. GROW YOUR WEALTH CONSCIOUSNESS

Imagine never worrying about money again. Imagine always having the money you need for your desires when it comes to your lifestyle, business and helping others. This is what a healthy relationship with money feels like, and it's available for you to create right now.

If you're ever going to get out of "survival mode," that starts with understanding that there is no lack or limitation to how much money you can make. Money is currency and currency is energy. It will come to you unlimitedly, if you attract it for the right reasons!

Instead of asking questions like "Where are all of the high paying clients?" and expecting money to just magically appear because you want a new pair of stilettos, you need to connect to the deeper purpose: the true source of your desire.

Try asking yourself better questions like, "Who do I need to be to attract high-paying clients?" or "What impact do I desire to make today?" This is how you start attracting high-paying clients, because you match their purpose, intention, and energy. Like attracts like!

Remember, honoring your desires is the ultimate way to transform your life and the lives of others. And let's get real, of course you desire more money! BUT what you desire even more is the impact that comes with it. The problem is not that we ask for too much, but we ask for too little. It's time for women like us to thrive, and we need a strong wealth consciousness to do so!

In what areas do you know that you need to strengthen your wealth consciousness? Be specific.

What “money rules” have you set for yourself (or that stem from your family dynamic) that are holding you back?

What does your current relationship with money look like?

How do you plan to transform it?

Who do you need to be to attract high-paying clients and make an impact on their lives?

3. MASTER THE ART OF COACHING

ANY WOMAN in a service-based business or position of leadership is by definition a coach. Whether that's a stylist, photographer, executive, attorney, MLM professional, yoga teacher, personal trainer, interior designer, psychotherapist, relationship counselor, nutritionist... you name it! If you're helping people become a better version of themselves in some way, developing excellent and effective coaching skills is KEY to confidently booking more clients, charging higher rates, delivering amazing results and ultimately transforming lives. Isn't this the reason you started your business in the first place?!

Not everybody in the world has the desire (or talent!) to help others in this way, but YOU DO. In fact, 33% of Americans actually hate their job. They don't realize that there's any way out...but you do! You know there's another choice you can make, and you're going to go for it!

I see so many women who are SO focused on their business skills that they let their coaching ability slide, resulting in ZERO transformations and tons of unsatisfied clients. That's not what I desire for you.

In mastering the art of coaching, you'll discover how to be real with your clients, how to go in-depth, how to ask really great questions, how to quickly get to the root of their problems, and how to be the facilitator of lasting change...and NOT just a personal cheerleader.

When you learn masterful coaching skills, you're going to be so in-tune and so present, you'll effortlessly be able to ask just the right question that sparks incredible transformations. Those transformations will in turn inspire so many others to free themselves as well. That's how you, as one person, can create a chain-reaction that will change the world.

How much time each week do you currently spend on developing your business vs. developing your coaching skills?

In what areas do you see yourself as a coach or mentor to others?

What sets you apart from other coaches?

How can you use your personal experience to further develop your deep, masterful coaching skills?

4. CREATE THE RIGHT BUSINESS STRUCTURES

You aren't going to help yourself or others if you don't learn how to get great at building, sustaining or growing a business. Having business structures set up and in place is what allows you to produce consistent income and a steady stream of ideal clients—without working around the clock like a mad woman! While someone or something always has to be working on your business, it doesn't have to be you.

What you have to do is:

- Know what the online structures are
- Build your list
- Have a clear offer
- Learn how to price your packages

Once you master these aspects, you'll take the steps to get your systems automated. It's the amazing sense of support you get from these masculine structures that allows you to honor your feminine desires.

At Divine Living, we are all about empowering women to design their businesses in a way that feels really good to them so they can enjoy the level of freedom they truly desire. I recommend you do to same! Get the basics down and give yourself permission to be the financial success and the total #girlboss that you know you can be!

What business structures do you already have in place?

What business structures do you NOT have in place? How is it harming you, your financial potential and your visibility to ideal clients?

In what other areas are your business structures lacking?

In what ways do you plan to develop your business and business structures moving forward?

5. BELONG TO A HIGH-VIBE COMMUNITY

Being in a thriving, high-vibrational community and having an amazing mentor who gets you and knows your name is absolutely essential. In the Divine Living community everybody matters, everybody belongs, and everybody has a unique story and purpose. You deserve to have a safe place to be 100% you, from mistakes to victories and everything in between.

You do NOT have to figure everything out by yourself, take the lonely “solopreneur” route and feel stuck having to constantly try to explain to your friends and family what this whole “coaching thing” is all about...isolation and doubt are complete dream killers and you’ll have to work 10x as hard to keep your vibration up!

That’s why you putting yourself in a community who GETS IT is CRUCIAL to your success (and happiness!) and the growth of your business. Whether it’s just a group of 4 women or a community of 250+ (like the Divine Living Academy), being surrounded by others who CAN RELATE will keep you in that high-vibe space, so there’s no opportunity to get derailed.

Communities like ours keep you focused, inspired, balanced, on track, loved, supported, celebrated—you name it! You deserve to have a safe place where you get to be completely YOU.

What does your current community, tribe or support group look like?

If you don't have a biz community yet, how do you see it drastically changing the trajectory of your entrepreneurial journey?

What areas do you need to be held accountable in? And in what areas do you desire to feel supported in?

What does your ideal entrepreneurial community (or support group) look like?

In what ways do you plan to expand your community moving forward?

I know that you desire to pour so much into the lives of others, and to rock out your own life too! We are here to help you get there and to take a stand for you and your dreams.

I so look forward to welcoming you into this community and watching you take these 5 life-changing steps!

Much Love,

Gina DeVee

P.S. Are YOU ready to finally go for your entrepreneurial dream and join our Divine Living Community of hundreds of driven, spiritual women entrepreneurs just like you? Remember, you don't need to do this "business thing" alone. I'm here to help you grow (or build from scratch!) your business and to do it in a way that feels fun, pleasurable and fulfilling to you!
