NOVENT®

A2L Compatible, Universal Refrigerant Caps

Protect Your Home,
Your HVAC System,
& Your Peace of Mind.

WHY CHOOSE NOVENT UNI CAPS?

Novent Uni Caps provide homeowners with a comprehensive solution for securing their HVAC systems. These caps are essential for system safety and offer several benefits that enhance your home's security and value.

KEY FEATURES:

- A2L compatible and HVAC code adherence
- Prevention of inhalant theft and liability
- Safe and secure: Resistant to crushing
- Professional and aesthetic finish, universally compatible

MEETING A2L COMPATIBILITY AND HVAC CODE

STAY AHEAD WITH NOVENT UNI CAPS:

•A2L COMPATIBILITY:

Our refrigerant caps meet the latest A2L refrigerant standards, ensuring your HVAC system adheres to current regulations.

•SAFETY ASSURANCE:

Designed to safely manage lower flammability refrigerants, these caps contribute to your HVAC system's overall safety and efficiency.

•PEACE OF MIND:

Knowing that your system complies with HVAC codes can save you from costly fines and potential hazards. Novent Uni Caps meet the IMC®, IRC®, and UMC® codes.

PREVENTING INHALANT THEFT AND LIABILITY

PROTECT YOUR HOME AND YOUR LOVED ONES:

•THEFT DETERRENCE:

Our robust design prevents unauthorized access, significantly reducing the risk of refrigerant theft and misuse. Novent Uni Caps require special tools for installation and removal to ensure secure fitting.

•LIABILITY REDUCTION:

Securing your refrigerant access points decreases the risk of accidents and liability related to refrigerant inhalation, a common issue in many neighborhoods.

•HEALTH PROTECTION:

Preventing inhalant abuse helps protect the health and safety of your family and the community.
