When we experience the resurrection, we join the _____

Luke 24:30 p. 738

30 When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. 31 Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him and he disappeared from their sight. 32 They asked each other, “Were not our hearts burning within us while he talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?”

33 They got up and returned at once to Jerusalem. There they found the Eleven and those with them, assembled together 34 and saying, “It is true! The Lord has risen and has appeared to Simon.” 35 Then the two told what had happened on the way, and how Jesus was recognized by them when he broke the bread.

Restoration

Respond: go deeper.

- . Start by sharing an opening thought about the sermon: what was the message about, from your perspective? What questions did it address or raise?
- . Can you share a brief story about a time when your life was disrupted by pain? Did/has anything good come from that disruption?
- . Read the table scene from Luke 24 (vs. 30-35). How is food related to the spiritual posture necessary for healing?
- . Can you think of other scenes in the Bible that involve eating? What's happening around all this food?
- . Have any of your painful experiences been restored? Share!
