

Getting Started with Macros & VBA

Webinar with Jon Acampora

1. A _____ is a written set of instructions that will perform actions in Excel when it runs. Similar to a _____.
2. _____ is the programming language we use to write macros.
3. VBA can be used to _____ Excel and save _____ with our jobs.
4. The Excel Macro-Enabled Workbook file type extension is _____.
5. The Visual Basic button is on the _____ tab of the ribbon. Alt+F11 is the keyboard shortcut to open the VB Editor.
6. The macro always starts with the word _____, which stands for Sub Procedure.
7. Everything in Excel (sheets, ranges, charts) is an _____ in VBA.
8. We can read and write object _____ with VBA.
9. _____ are the actions that can be run on an object with VBA.
10. All of the objects, properties, and methods are organized in a _____ in the Excel Object Model.
11. _____ is the keyboard shortcut to step through and run each line of the macro.
12. The _____ _____ Loop is the most commonly used loop in VBA.

Additional Notes:
