

“The following is a direct script of a teaching that is intended to be presented via video, incorporating relevant text, slides, media, and graphics to assist in illustration, thus facilitating the presentation of the material. In some places, this may cause the written material to not flow or sound rather awkward in some places. In addition, there may be grammatical errors that are often not acceptable in literary work. We encourage the viewing of the video teachings to complement the written teaching you see below.”

WWJD

WWJD ... It’s a nice little catch phrase that’s been around for several decades.

WWJD ... What would Jesus do?

A little question that is intended to get us to think about and FOLLOW our Savior’s example.

But how did He live? How did He respond? What was the basis of ALL His actions and re-actions?

So the question of WWJD is best answered by asking

WDJD ... That being ... What Did Jesus Do?

Is there anything that can answer this question for us?

Do we know what he did? Yes. We do.

He followed the law.

And obeyed the Law.

He gave us the perfect example of how we are to live and pursue just as John said,

1 John 2:6

Whoever claims to live in him must walk as Jesus did.

Some try to say “Wait a minute. Jesus broke the law in several instances. Like the time when He didn’t stone the woman caught in adultery.”

Little do people realize here is that He was actually obeying the law in that circumstance.

Let’s read one verse from that account in John 8.

John 8:6

They were using this question as a trap, in order to have a basis for accusing Him. But (Yeshua) Jesus bent down and started to write on the ground with His finger.

It is verse 6 that many overlook in this account. Oh, everyone remembers the part of Him bending down and writing in the dirt, but it seems that everyone forgets the first part of that verse.

John 8:6

They were using this question as a trap, in order to have a basis for accusing Him.

It must be understood that the law requires BOTH of the individuals who commit adultery to be stoned, not just the female. Their trap was to get Him to declare that she should be stoned. When, in reality, the man was needed for this to be done as well. Consider:

Leviticus 20:10

If a man commits adultery with another man's wife – with the wife of his neighbor - both the adulterer and the adulteress must be put to death.

Not only was Yeshua not falling for their trap, He turned it back on them by telling them to cast the first stone. "How is this turning it back on them," you ask? Consider:

Deuteronomy 17:6-7

On the testimony of two or three witnesses a man shall be put to death, but no one shall be put to death on the testimony of only one witness. The hands of witnesses must be the first in putting him to death, and then the hands of all the people. You must purge the evil from among you.

Where were the two witnesses? These people were to be the first to cast the stones. If they were there, they knew that they would have had to have the man there to stone as well. Otherwise it would be THEM sinning and not Yeshua. Remember, they were trying to trap Him. They wanted Him to break the law so that they had something to accuse Him of. Yet, He stayed faithful to the Word of God.

So again, "What did Jesus do?" He pursued the law. As should we.

Just a thought.

For more on this and other teachings, please visit us at www.testeverything.net

Shalom, and may Yahweh bless you in walking in the whole Word of God.

EMAIL: Info@119ministries.com

FACEBOOK: www.facebook.com/119Ministries

WEBSITE: www.TestEverthing.net & www.ExaminaloTodo.net

TWITTER: www.twitter.com/119Ministries#