FIRST READING: (LECTOR 1) 1 Kings 17: 10-16

A reading from the first Book of Kings.

In those days, Elijah the prophet went to Zarephath.

As he arrived at the entrance of the city,

 a widow was gathering sticks there; he called out to her,

 "Please bring me a small cupful of water to drink."

She left to get it, and he called out after her,

 "Please bring along a bit of bread."

She answered, "As the LORD, your God, lives,

 I have nothing baked; there is only a handful of flour in my jar and a little oil in my jug.

Just now I was collecting a couple of sticks,

 to go in and prepare something for myself and my son;
 when we have eaten it, we shall die."

Elijah said to her, "Do not be afraid.

Go and do as you propose.

But first make me a little cake and bring it to me.

Then you can prepare something for yourself and your son.

For the LORD, the God of Israel, says,

 'The jar of flour shall not go empty,
 nor the jug of oil run dry,
 until the day when the LORD sends rain upon the earth.'"

She left and did as Elijah had said.

She was able to eat for a year, and he and her son as well;

 the jar of flour did not go empty,

 nor the jug of oil run dry,

 as the LORD had foretold through Elijah.

SECOND READING: (LECTOR 2) Hebrews 9: 24-28

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews.

Christ did not enter into a sanctuary made by hands,
a copy of the true one, but heaven itself,
that he might now appear before God on our behalf.
Not that he might offer himself repeatedly,
as the high priest enters each year into the sanctuary
with blood that is not his own;
if that were so, he would have had to suffer repeatedly from the foundation of the world.
But now once for all he has appeared at the end of the ages to take away sin by his sacrifice.
Just as it is appointed that human beings die once,
and after this the judgment, so also Christ,
offered once to take away the sins of many,
will appear a second time, not to take away sin
but to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him.

GOSPEL: Mark 12: 38-44

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

In the course of his teaching Jesus said to the crowds,

"Beware of the scribes, who like to go around in long robes and accept greetings in the marketplaces, seats of honor in synagogues,
and places of honor at banquets.

They devour the houses of widows and, as a pretext recite lengthy prayers.

They will receive a very severe condemnation."

He sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury.

Many rich people put in large sums.

A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents.

Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them,

"Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury.

For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth,

but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had,
her whole livelihood."

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

FIRST READING: (LECTOR 1) Daniel 7: 13-14

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Daniel.

As the visions during the night continued, I saw one like a Son of man coming,
 on the clouds of heaven;
when he reached the Ancient One
 and was presented before him, the one like a Son of man received dominion, glory, and kingship;
 all peoples, nations, and languages serve him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion
 that shall not be taken away,
 his kingship shall not be destroyed.

SECOND READING: (LECTOR 2) Revelation 1: 5-8

A reading from the Book of Revelation.

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness,
the firstborn of the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth.
To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood, who has made us into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father,
to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen.

Behold, he is coming amid the clouds,
and every eye will see him,
even those who pierced him.
All the peoples of the earth will lament him.
Yes. Amen.

"I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God,
"the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty."

GOSPEL:

John 18: 33b-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

Pilate said to Jesus,

"Are you the King of the Jews?"

Jesus answered,

"Do you say this on your own or have others told you about me?"

Pilate answered,

"I am not a Jew, am I?

Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me.

What have you done?"

Jesus answered,

"My kingdom does not belong to this world.

If my kingdom did belong to this world,

my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews.

But as it is, my kingdom is not here."

So Pilate said to him,

"Then you are a king?"

Jesus answered,

"You say I am a king.

For this I was born and for this I came into the world,

to testify to the truth.

Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
