Administrative Reports– Governance

Standing Committee

Members of the Standing Committee for 2021 were the Rev. Tim Baer, the Rev. Sean Ekberg, Mr. Field Griffin (resigned on 8/15/21), the Rev. Mary Ann Hill, Ms. Marian Moon (President) and Mr. Bill Young. The Standing Committee met a total of six times throughout the year.

In addition to the five regularly scheduled combined Diocesan Council/Standing Committee meetings since the last diocesan convention, the Standing Committee met six times. The main activities at these meetings included interviewing and certifying or recommending support for the advancement of individuals through the various stages of the ordination process, voting on requests for consent for the election of bishops in various diocese around the country, and considering and voting for or recommending approval of various diocesan business matters requiring Standing Committee approval. In addition, the Standing Committee acted in an informal consultative capacity in matters raised for discussion by Bishop Poulson

On behalf of the Standing Committee I would like to thank Field Griffin for his service on the committee, which he cut short due to his many other pressing commitments. I would also like to thank Bishop Poulson Reed and Canon Eric Cooter for their thoughtful and collaborative approach to our new ministry together. A special word of appreciation also goes to the wonderful diocesan staff for their skills and invaluable support in the management of the business of the diocese. It is a privilege and joy to work together with these people in service to the Episcopal Diocese of Oklahoma.

Faithfully,
Marian J. Moon
Standing Committee President

EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF OKLAHOMA
Report of the Constitution and Canons Committee
to the 84th Convention of the Diocese

The Constitution and Canons Committee consults with the Bishop, Standing Committee and Diocesan Council regarding the Constitution and Canons of the Church and Diocese. It also maintains the Diocesan Canons through periodic amendments to ensure their currency, effectiveness and compliance with the General Canons and applicable state law and reviews amendments proposed by others to confirm their proper form.

For this Diocesan Convention, the Committee proposes amendments to our Canons that fix the time for conducting annual parish meetings, that broaden the pool of persons who might serve as Diocesan officers, and that clarify the duties and authority of Priests-in-charge. The amendments also acknowledge that the trust in which parish property held for the Church is an irrevocable trust.

The Committee has also prepared and maintains a model form of bylaws for use by congregations and institutions and advises congregations and institutions that are amending their bylaws or certificates of incorporation. Since the last Convention, the Committee has reviewed and revised proposed bylaws or certificates of incorporation for 12 congregations and institutions.

The Committee encourages input about the Diocesan Canons and its work.

Proposed Changes to the Canons of the Episcopal Diocese of Oklahoma

This change conforms the delegate eligibility requirement for the Regional Council to that of the Diocesan Convention.

1.2.2. Manner of Selection.

* * *

(b) Each Regional Council elects one member of the Clergy and one confirmed, Lay Communicant in good standing in a meeting before Diocesan Convention. The elected members serve three-year terms except as may be required to fill vacancies.

* * *

These changes require Congregations to conduct their annual meeting no later than the last day of February and to certify election results by April 1. The changes are made to conform to the parochial reporting requirements under the General Canons, which are due by March 1.

2.2.1. The Lay Delegates.

(d) No later than the last day of March-February before each Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Convention, each Congregation meets to elect the Lay Delegates to which it is entitled. For good cause shown the Bishop, the Vestry or Bishop's Committee of a Congregation may elect the Lay Delegates. The Congregation certifies the election results in a writing signed by the Priest-in-charge and delivered to the Secretary of Convention no later than May-April 1. If the Congregation has no Priest-in-charge, the Senior Warden and the Secretary of the congregational meeting or the Clerk of the Vestry certify the results.

7.10.3. A Parish's annual meeting is to be held not later than the last day of February~~March 31st~~. Unless the place (if any), day and hour are stated in the Parish's bylaws, the Vestry determines the place (if any), day and hour by resolution.

The term "Comptroller" is changed to "Chief Financial Officer", which better describes the role served and conforms to common usage relating to the office. The term "Comptroller" is antiquated and used infrequently.

3.1. Officers of the Diocese. The officers of the Diocese consist of the Bishop Diocesan, the Bishop Coadjutor (if one), the Bishop Suffragan (if one), the Treasurer, the Secretary of the Convention, the Comptroller~~Chief Financial Officer~~, the Chancellor, the Registrar and the Archivist. The Diocese may have other officers as contemplated by these Canons or as designated and elected by the Diocesan Council, but no officer designated and elected by the Diocesan Council has executive authority. Except as to the offices named above, the same person may hold two or more offices.

3.11. The ~~Comptroller~~Chief Financial Officer. The Diocesan Council employs a full-time ~~Comptroller~~Chief Financial Officer, who serves as the chief accounting and financial officer for the Diocese under the immediate supervision of the Bishop. The ~~Chief Financial Officer~~Comptroller approves bills for purchases, payrolls, and similar instruments providing for disbursement of monies, is in charge of and maintains books of account and accounting records of the Diocese, assists the Treasurer in the performance of that office, and performs such other acts as are usually performed by a ~~chief accounting and financial officer comptroller~~ or assigned to him or her by the Bishop, the Convention or the Diocesan Council.

6.1.4. The Diocesan Council may authorize any officer or officers, or agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name and on behalf of the Diocese. The Diocesan Council may make such authorization general or special. The Treasurer and the ~~Comptroller~~Chief Financial Officer and such other persons as the Finance Committee determines may issue all checks, drafts and other orders for the payment of money, notes and other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of or payable by the Diocese.

To broaden the pool of potential persons who might serve in these roles, the Constitution and Canons Committee recommends that confirmation not be a requirement of service for these offices. These offices are sometimes filled by Diocesan staff, who although are Lay Communicants in good standing are not confirmed.

3.6. The Treasurer. The Bishop appoints and the Convention confirms annually a Treasurer from the Clergy or ~~confirmed,~~ adult Lay Communicants in good standing ~~of in~~ the Diocese. The Treasurer also serves as the Treasurer of the Diocesan Council. The Treasurer has those duties assigned to the office by the Constitution and Canons of the Church or of this Diocese, or by the Bishop, the Convention or the Diocesan Council.

3.7. The Secretary. The Bishop appoints and the Convention confirms annually a Secretary from among the Clergy or ~~confirmed,~~ adult Lay Communicants in good standing ~~in~~ the Diocese. The Secretary's term commences at the adjournment of the Annual Meeting at which the Secretary was elected and ends upon the election and qualification of his or her successor and the adjournment of the following Annual Meeting. The Secretary has those duties assigned to the office by the Constitution and Canons of the Church or of this Diocese, or by the Bishop, the Convention or the Diocesan Council.

3.8. The Chancellor. The Bishop appoints and the Convention confirms annually a Chancellor of the Diocese, who serves as the legal advisor and counselor of the Bishop, the Diocesan Council, the Standing Committee, and the Convention. The Chancellor must be a ~~confirmed~~ Lay Communicant in good standing and licensed to practice law in the State of Oklahoma. The Chancellor remains in office until a successor is appointed and confirmed. The Chancellor has those duties assigned to the office by the Constitution and Canons of the Church or of this Diocese, or by the Bishop, the Convention or the Diocesan Council. The Chancellor is, ex-officio, a delegate to the Convention and a member of the Standing Committee and Diocesan Council.

* * *

3.9. The Registrar. The Bishop appoints and the Convention confirms annually a Registrar from the Clergy or ~~confirmed~~, adult Lay Communicants in good standing ~~of~~in the Diocese, on nomination by the Bishop. The Registrar remains in office until a successor is appointed or elected. Under the direction of the Bishop, the Registrar maintains a record of Episcopal acts, prepares official documents for Episcopal signature, and maintains lists of the Clergy and of Candidates for Holy Orders.

3.10. The Archivist. The Bishop appoints and the Convention confirms annually an Archivist from the Clergy or ~~confirmed~~, adult Lay Communicants in good standing in~~of~~ the Diocese, on nomination by the Bishop. The Archivist remains in office until a successor is appointed or elected. The Archivist is the custodian of the archives of the Diocese and of the Convention and of their committees; and performs such other duties in relation to the collection, preservation, and use of historical and biographical matter pertaining to the Diocese, its Parishes, Missions, Institutions and individuals, and of their activities, as may from time to time be assigned by the Bishop, the Convention or the Diocesan Council.

This section dealing with the canonical duties of a Priest-in-charge moves subsection (c) to subsection (f) and confirms the Priest-in-charge's authority regarding employees and ex-officio roles. These changes are also incorporated into the changes dealing with the canonical duties of the Dean of the Cathedral.

3.14.3. Priests.

* * *

~~(e) With the advice and consent of the Bishop and, if required by the Parish bylaws, the advice and consent of the Vestry, a Rector may select one or more assistant Clergy (by whatever title they may be designated), who serve under the authority and direction of the Rector. An assistant's service terminates with the service of the Rector, unless asked to continue by the Vestry under such conditions as the Bishop and Vestry determine. An assistant may continue to serve at the request of a new Rector and, if required by the Parish bylaws, the advice and consent of the Vestry.~~

(ef) The responsibilities of Priests-in-charge of Congregations include the following:

- (i) To ensure that children, youth and adults in their charge receive instruction in the Holy Scriptures, in the subjects contained in An Outline of the Faith (the Catechism), and in the doctrine, discipline and worship of this Church, and in the exercise of their ministry as baptized persons;
- (ii) To instruct all persons in their charge concerning Christian stewardship;

- (iii) To prepare persons for Holy Baptism, and in the case of infants and children, to instruct the parents and the Godparents concerning the significance of Holy Baptism and the Christian training of the baptized child;
- (iv) To encourage and prepare persons for Confirmation, Reception, and the Reaffirmation of Baptismal Vows, and to be ready to present them to the Bishop with a list of their names;
- (v) To announce to the Congregation the Bishop's intent to visit and to advise the Bishop on the state of the Congregation;
- (vi) To read or distribute Pastoral Letters, and if applicable, Position Papers, to the Congregation within 30 days of their receipt;
- (vii) To record in the Register all Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages and Burials;
- (viii) To exercise supervision and management of the Congregation in consultation with the Vestry or Bishop's Committee, including the hiring, dismissal, performance, and duties of all employees and staff; and
- (vii)(ix) To serve as Chair, ex officio of the Vestry or Bishop's Committee and all committees of the Congregation, unless the Priest-in-charge selects a member of the committee to so serve.

(fe) With the advice and consent of the Bishop and, if required by the Parish bylaws, the advice and consent of the Vestry, a Rector may select one or more assistant Clergy (by whatever title they may be designated), who serve under the authority and direction of the Rector. An assistant's service terminates with the service of the Rector, unless asked to continue by the Vestry under such conditions as the Bishop and Vestry determine. An assistant may continue to serve at the request of a new Rector and, if required by the Parish bylaws, the advice and consent of the Vestry.

This change extends and staggers the terms of members serving on the Commission on Ministry. The Committee believes the longer terms will enhance the institutional knowledge of members serving on the Commission.

4.3. The Commission on Ministry. The Commission on Ministry is composed of those members appointed by the Bishop and confirmed by Convention. The members serve for three-year terms or until their successors are elected and qualified. The terms are staggered with one-third of the members appointed annually. A person may serve two consecutive terms. He or she will then be eligible for reappointment after a period of one year~~one-year terms~~. The Bishop may by appointment fill vacancies or appoint additional members for the proper conduct of the Commission's duties. The Bishop appoints a Chair. The Commission elects its own Secretary, and with the Bishop's consent, has the power to constitute committees necessary for the carrying on of its work.

This change addresses a legal issue that arose in The Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth v. The Episcopal Church, a Texas Supreme Court case that affirmed the right of the Diocese of Fort Worth to withdraw from The Episcopal Church ("TEC"). The court held that TEC's "Dennis Canon", which provides that the assets of the Episcopal congregations and institutions are held in trust for the benefit of TEC, is not binding upon a Diocese that elects to withdraw because the trust created by the Dennis Canon was not expressly irrevocable. This change to the Diocese's "Dennis Canon" clarifies that the trust is irrevocable.

6.4. All Property for the Benefit of the Church. All real and personal property held by or for the benefit of any Parish, Mission, Affiliated Episcopal Congregation or Institution is held in irrevocable trust for the Church and this Diocese. Subject to these Canons and the authority of the Diocese, this trust does not limit the authority of the Parish, Mission, Affiliated Episcopal Congregation or Institution to utilize its property so long as the particular Parish, Mission, Affiliated Episcopal Congregation or Institution remains a part of, and subject to, this Church and its Constitution and Canons and the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese.

7.3. The Cathedral Church.

* * *

7.3.3. The Dean is confirmed by a majority vote of the Vestry upon appointment by the Bishop. Subject to the control of the Bishop, the Dean:

(a) Has all duties and authority as a Priest-in-charge;

~~(a)(b)~~ Decides all matters pertaining to Cathedral services;

~~(b)(c)~~ Exercises supervision and management of the Cathedral in consultation with the Vestry;

~~(c)(d)~~ Assigns duties to the Clergy of the Cathedral, and has authority over their hiring, dismissal, and performance; and-

~~(d)(e)~~ Serves as Chair, ex officio, of the Vestry and all committees of the Cathedral, unless the Dean selects a member of the committee to so serve ~~or the Cathedral Canons otherwise provide.~~

This change standardizes the composition of the Vestry and recognizes the Rector and Wardens as ex-officio members of the Vestry.

7.11. The Vestry.

7.11.1. ~~Unless the Parish's bylaws otherwise require, a~~ A Parish's Vestry consists of the Rector, a Senior Warden, and a Junior ~~two~~ Wardens, who are ex-officio, and, unless the Parish's bylaws otherwise require, from three to 15 confirmed Lay Communicants. The Parish bylaws determine the number of members, the method of selection, the length of their term of office and manner of rotation, if any.

This change recognizes the traditional relationship of the Rector and Senior Warden and adopts the typical protocol for the Senior Warden's appointment by the Rector, which is the protocol recommended in the model bylaws for Diocesan Parishes.

7.12. Wardens and Vestry Officers.

7.12.1. Unless its bylaws otherwise require, the ~~Parish elects~~ Rector appoints the Senior Warden at ~~its~~ the annual meeting. The Senior Warden serves until a successor is duly ~~elected~~ appointed and has qualified. If the Parish is without a Rector and a Senior Warden, or in the case of the organization of a new Parish, the Bishop either appoints the Senior Warden or directs the Vestry to elect the Senior Warden. The Senior Warden is, ex-officio, a member of the Vestry of the Parish.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN

DIOCESE OF OKLAHOMA

Report to Convention

Our Mission:

We are Sisters in Christ. We are every Episcopal Woman, lay or ordained. We are committed to prayer, listening, leadership, study, service, giving, and fellowship.

The Episcopal Church Women's organization is made up of all women in the diocese. While individual churches may not have a formal organized group called ECW, this does not preclude the women in that church from being a part of this statewide organization. The Episcopal Church Women of the Diocese of Oklahoma offer programs throughout the year for the women of this diocese. We encourage all women to fully participate in Diocesan events which will support them in their mission and ministry.

Episcopal Church Women of Oklahoma have supported many ministries within the state and across the nation, including New Hope, Whirlwind Mission, United Thank Offering, Church Periodical Club, Cursillo, The Bishop's Cup, Summer Camp and others.

Women from around the diocese participate in retreats held in the early spring and fall at St. Crispin's. The retreats have also served as an excellent opportunity for outreach as attendees often recruit women from outside the Episcopal Church to join them for spiritual renewal and study offered at these events. Still finding our way through the pandemic, an unstructured 2021 fall retreat was held October 1-3 at St. Crispin's with masks, social distancing, and outside when possible. The 2022 dates for the Women's retreats are February 25 - 27, and October 28-30.

In addition to our retreats, programs are often presented in each of the regions of the diocese. Each spring we normally hold our Annual Conference & Bishop's Day bringing women together from around Oklahoma for prayer, education and fellowship. In 2018, we decided to begin to hold our annual meeting at St. Crispin's. The Annual Conference & Bishop's Day was planned to be held at St. Crispin's and hosted by the ECW Diocesan Board on April 30 – May 1, 2021. Because of the pandemic, we actually held a well attended "Covid mindful" weekend retreat April 30- May 2, offering a short business meeting on Saturday morning followed by lunch for those who could not participate in the retreat. Many other women from around the state came for the Saturday activities.

Province VII ECW once again had organized a conference to be held at St. Paul's Cathedral, September 10-11, 2021, welcoming women to Oklahoma City from twelve dioceses across the seven states of Arkansas, Kansas, Louisiana, Missouri, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas. Instead, Dean Katie Churchwell was the keynote speaker for a virtual conference on September 11, 2021. Our own Debbie Butcher is the Secretary of the Province VII ECW for 2021-2023.

We will be sending four delegates and an alternate to the 50th Triennial Meeting of the Episcopal Church Women in Baltimore, Maryland from July 7-14, 2022, meeting concurrently with General Convention. Celebrating the 150th anniversary of the ECW, we look forward to meeting the needs and ministry of women in the 21st century.

On July 18, 2021, Deacon Linda Paul led our first virtual task force meeting to begin actively exploring ways in which we can be creative and responsive in using our regional, statewide and national networks to provide events and resources to support the needs of the women and their ministries in our diocese, both individually and collectively. We ask for your input and dialogue so that we can bring expanded opportunities for fellowship and growth to all women and all parishes in the diocese whether to congregations with organized groups of women, churches just beginning to organize, or individual women without a parish organization.

2021 Archive Journal Report

The Episcopal Oklahoma Diocese of Oklahoma Archive collects manuscripts, photographs, papers, and liturgical items. Collections within the archive serve as a witness to our individual and collective Episcopal history. Every collection of papers, photographs and artifacts highlight our ancestor's religious commitment, perseverance and dedication to their church and community.

Digitally preserving the former and present church historical papers was a major goal for 2021. Since 1892, we have had over two hundred twenty-two preaching stations, unorganized missions, organized missions, and parishes. While many of these missions do not exist anymore, collected historical papers need preservation.

Through Oklahoma's Heritage Preservation Grant of 2020, with the help of our grant assistant, Amena Butler, we have been able to digitize over eighty- eight boxes of church papers along with Bishop Brooke, Seaman and Casady papers. This grant has enabled us to digitize over 160,000 pages and provide open access to Episcopal history.

In addition to managing the grant digitization program, in the spring of 2021 two new exhibits were created for our Diocesan office. The first exhibit relays the story of Bishop Casady's grand idea of a Diocesan Cathedral named All Souls on Persimmon Hill. In 1930, he proposed to build the largest Southwestern multi-denominational cathedral but could not raise the money due to the depression. The second exhibit focuses upon Reverend Franklin Campbell Smith's ministry in Oklahoma and his collection of Native American artifacts. Both exhibits are slated to be available on-line by 2022 along with our new exhibit "Episcopal Diocese of Oklahoma's Black Church History."

New historical collections were also accepted during 2021 including Georgia Gates' St. Crispin's summer camp scrapbooks which detail the many decades of the Episcopal summer camps. St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Edmond, donated many items at the time of moving into their new church building. Also, thank you to James Shields for donating the framed ordination photographs of Bishop McAllister.

In 2022, the archive will be offering churches the opportunity to acquire stored liturgical items and furniture. These saved liturgical items, in conjunction with church buildings, reflect the visible spirit of the divine and should be used within our Diocesan churches.

As we move into the new year, additional access to the Episcopal Diocese of Oklahoma's historical photographs and papers is a goal along with offering more support to the Diocesan's church historians, archivists, and vestry members.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve the Episcopal Diocese of Oklahoma as your resource for records management and preservation. Please feel free to reach out to me anytime.

Commission on Ministry

2021 Annual Report

The Commission on Ministry (COM) continues its work with Bishop Poulson, Canon Cooter and others to seek out and prepare individuals for ordination within / reception into the Diocese of Oklahoma. This past year has seen much greater participation by COM members in this work and we are grateful for the opportunity to assist the Bishop in this process. Highlights from this past year:

- A Vocation Information Gathering was held February 18 and provided an opportunity for those who might be sensing God's call to begin a period of prayerful discernment. It provided an opportunity for our Bishop, members of the COM, experienced clergy, seminarians, IONA students, and clergy spouses to share information about their experience of ordained ministry to those individuals in early discernment. The session also provide information and timelines for the process of discernment in the Diocese of Oklahoma.
- The BACM (Bishop's Advisory Council on Ministry) was held on Saturday, April 17 and was a Zoom event. Two aspirants successfully completed the Discernment Program and were interviewed by the COM. Following the interviews, the COM made recommendations for the aspirants to either proceed / not to proceed in the Holy Orders process.
- The COM, working closely with the Canon to the Ordinary's office, assisted in the revising of the Diocesan Holy Orders Ordination Manual. Included in this work were the development of:
  - ❑ Parish Discernment Committee (PDC): The main goal of the PDC is to assist Aspirants within their local parish in the exploration and clarification of a call into ordained ministry. Following discernment, the PDC makes a recommendation to the vestry. The PDC consists of the aspirant, rector/vicar of parish, parish lay members, and a COM Liaison (see below).
  - ❑ COM Liaison is a non-voting member of the PDC. Their role is to help organize, facilitate and guide the PDC so that all aspects of the aspirant's discernment are properly conducted in accordance with Diocesan guidelines.
  - ❑ COM Liaison Training was created to provide consistent education for those members of the COM who will be serving as COM Liaisons. This training consists of video and written information. Many thanks to the Rev. Dr. Tony Moon for his work on this.

Both lay and clergy serve on the Commission. Current members are: The Rev. Joseph Alsay, Angela Hock-Brewer, The Rev. Tim Baer, The Rev. Kay Boman, The Rev. David Bumstead, The Very Rev. Katie Churchwell, Elizabeth Davis, The Rev. Dr. Lee Domenick, Kristin Lees, The Rev. Canon Tony Moon, Ph.D., Dr. Steve Orwig, Teresa Phares, Peggy Saunkeah, The Rev. Chris Yoder, and The Rev. Tim Sean Youmans.

Faithfully submitted,

The Rev. Dr. John Toles
Chair, Commission on Ministry

Formation Department

The Formation Department has undergone a number of changes from 2020 to 2021. Most notably, Sabrina Evans, Director of Formation since 2010, has retired and moved with her husband Chuck back to her home state of Alabama. We at the Diocesan Office thank Sabrina for her years of ministry and wish her the best in retirement.

Kate Carney Bond (nee Huston) has moved from the role of Director of Youth and Young Adults to the Director of Faith and Discipleship. In this role, Kate is responsible for resourcing our congregations in formation ministries, providing Diocesan programming for all ages, and developing new opportunities for formation and discipleship in the Diocese.

Major Highlights from 2020-2021:

While Covid drastically altered ministry for congregations and the Diocese, formation ministry continued in very real ways. First, we were able to hold Summer Camp in 2021. Insert Beth's report here. Beth Gaertner left her employment with the Diocese in September of 2021. We thank her for her service to the Diocese and will be looking for a new camp director this fall. Summer Camp was a success, despite being impacted by covid in 2021. We hosted over 350 campers, with 14 full time staff and another 10 volunteers throughout the summer months. We are bringing back the CIT program and making some other changes to summer camp for the 2022 season but are looking forward to living into the St. Crispin's Rule of Life together!

One shift the Formation Department made in 2021 was to begin offering curated resourced, based on Diocesan contracts, of curriculum to a number of our congregations. Some of these resources are for free and some of them come with a reduced fee for use. We hope by helping with the costs of curriculum our congregations will be able to use quality options for children's and youth ministry.

The Schools of Ministry (a new collection of the Iona School of Formation, the School of Spiritual Direction, and the upcoming School of Discipleship) is launching this fall with offerings in Ignatian Studies, a retreat at St. Crispin's in November, and opportunities to join other Diocesan wide programming. We look forward to the launch of the School of Discipleship this fall. The School of Discipleship will be the major programming arm for the Diocese. For more information on the Iona School of Formation and the School of Spiritual Direction, see their reports.

Our youth and children programming was put on hold in 2021, however we have already launched our 2022 schedule with a newly revamped New Beginnings Program, a pilgrimage to Arizona, and Emerge - our new Senior High spiritual retreat in the fall.

Annual Report for Diocese of Oklahoma School of Spiritual Direction

The Diocese of Oklahoma School of Spiritual Direction is one of the Schools of Ministry offered by the Diocese and under the direction of the Dean of the School, the Rev. Canon Susan Colley Joplin.

Since January, 2021, our 12 students (8 clergy: the Reverends Tony Moon, Elizabeth Davis, Mary Davis, Gerald Butcher, Therese Starr, Janie Koch, Tammy Wooliver and Ann Murray; and 4 laity: Field Griffen, Cynthia Jones, Debbie Butcher and Jim McPhee) have been in intensive training to become spiritual directors.

Their training is built on the principles of the importance of an ongoing prayer life of church leaders as established in the Book of Common Prayer Baptismal Covenant, the Form of Commitment to Christian Service and numerous other places in the BCP.

Our training program is Ignatian based. All students entering the School must have completed the 10 month course of Ignatian Exercises. The 500 year old prayer method laid out by St. Ignatius of Loyola beginning in 1522, and carried forth by the Jesuits, provides opportunity for the serious praying person to gain a basic understanding of many forms of prayer and, more importantly, to grow in a personal relationship with God through Christ.

The Ignatian prayer method used in central Oklahoma was established by the Red Plains Monastery of Piedmont, OK, in 1981. Hundreds of souls in central Oklahoma have been beneficiaries of that program. The nuns of the Red Plains Monastery gained knowledge from the late internationally known Ignatian leader the Rev. John Futrell, formerly of Oklahoma and subsequently, the community of the St. Louis, Missouri, Jesuits.

Dean of the School, Canon Susan Joplin, claims her own Ignatian lineage from that school, under the late and renowned Sister Benedicta of Red Plains Monastery as her mentor and Spiritual Director and Mary Diane Steltenkamp as her trainer in the art of leading others in Spiritual Direction.

The School Terms: 2021-2022

Beginning with their First Term (January-May, 2021), students have received excellent training from qualified mentors including Elaine Sullivan (Counselor, Consultant and Trainer in Parker Palmer's work); Dr. Harrison Smith (clinical psychologist specializing in Family Systems); the Rev. Dr. Bob Gardenhire (therapist and pastoral counselor, Founder and Director of HeartPaths Spirituality Center and who has trained many in the skill of spiritual direction for 40 years); Mary Diane Steltenkamp (former Director of the 5 year training program for spiritual directors in the Oklahoma Roman Catholic Archdiocese), Dr. Diane Rudebock (retired Professor of Kinesiology from University of Central Oklahoma).

In addition, Diocese of Oklahoma clergy have contributed to the students' learning in the areas of Holy Listening (the Rev. Susanne Methven), Jungian Intersection with Spiritual Direction (the Rev. Alan Barrow), Brene Brown and Vulnerability (the Very Rev. Katie Churchwell) and the art of Clearness Committee and Open, Honest Questions (Parker Palmer facilitator Canon Susan Joplin along with Steph Kirby, Diane Rudebock and Elaine Sullivan). Other speakers include Dr. Steve Orwig, Dean of the Iona School and Julane Borth, a local Spiritual Director with 35 years experience.

Beginning September, 2021, students will receive advanced training in the Ignatian method according to Teilhard de Chardin with the assistance of the Rev. Dr. Bob Gardenhire. Students will benefit from this training which will open up the Exercises to greater depth of understanding of the basic Ignatian Exercises.

Fall, Winter and Spring of 2021-2022 will also be a Practicum time for the students. In addition to their working with directees, taken from the group signed up for the Ignatian Exercises, they will work with their Spiritual Director as well as an additional Teilhard Spiritual Director. In class, students will be presenting Peer Presentations in Verbatim style, which will have the benefit of feedback from experienced Spiritual Directors and psychotherapists.

Current Excitement

By far, what is currently generating the most energy at the School, for both students and faculty, is the offering of the 10 month Ignatian Exercise program for the Diocese of Oklahoma and beyond. Students from the School are being trained to lead the Exercises under the supervision of the Dean of the School. Students will be doing practicum training in spiritual direction with those who have enrolled in the Ignatian Exercises.

To date, we have enrolled 52 people in the basic Ignatian Exercises for 2021-2022 from all corners of the Diocese. We are at capacity and now have a waiting list of several more. This has far exceeded expectations and dreams.

One or more parishioners from the following Episcopal churches have enrolled:

All Saints, McAlester
All Saints, Miami
All Souls', Oklahoma City
Christ Church, Tulsa
Emmanuel, Shawnee Grace
Church, Yukon
St. Andrew's, Lawton St.
Andrew's, Stillwater
St. Augustine's, Oklahoma City St.
Dunstan's, Tulsa
St. John's, Oklahoma City St.
John's, Norman
St. Luke's, Ada

St. Mary's, Edmond St.
Michael's, Norman
St. Patrick's, Broken Arrow
St. Paul's Cathedral, Oklahoma City
Philip's, Ardmore
Trinity, Eufaula
Trinity, Tulsa

Participation from Episcopal Churches outside our Diocese include:

Eastwind Community Church, Episcopal Diocese of Idaho,
Holy Faith Episcopal Church, Santa Fe, New Mexico

Participation from Churches outside our Denomination include:

Church of the Epiphany (Roman Catholic), Oklahoma City
8th Street Church, Oklahoma City

In addition to the 8 Episcopal clergy who are now being trained to be Spiritual Directors, there are 6 Episcopal clergy enrolled in the Ignatian Exercises program for 2021-2022: the Reverends Chris Cole, Stephanie Jenkins, Cheryl Harder, Michael Matkin, Cindy Ritter and Bobby Saunkeah.

In all, 24 churches are represented in these numbers. I believe that this overwhelming response to our program indicates a spiritual need for an in depth and structured prayer method such as what the Ignatian Exercises provide. I believe there is not only a need but a hunger and that our large enrollment indicates this.

Envisioning the Future

Future plans include development of ongoing continuing education for Spiritual Directors through a newly envisioned Supervision model.

In addition, more prayer programs are needed to follow the 10 month Ignatian program in Lectio Divina and Centering Prayer as well as a contemplative model for praying the Daily Office in the Book of Common Prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
The Reverend Canon Susan Colley Joplin

Oklahoma Iona School of Formation

In September 2021, the Oklahoma Iona School of Formation (OISF) began its tenth year of existence in the Diocese. The OISF helps provide education and formation for those who wish to become deacons or bi-vocational priests in the Diocese of Oklahoma. Due to the COVID pandemic, we met by Zoom each month from September 2020 to March 2021, before returning to St. Crispin's in April, May, and June.

In June 2021, four students graduated from the OISF:

Jorge de la Rosa
Wayne Hanway
Todd Olberding
Dave Thomas

This brings the total number of graduates from the OISF to thirty, most of whom are now serving as deacons or priests across the Diocese.

For the 2021-22 academic year, we have eleven active students:

Class of 2022	Skip Eller Robby Trammell
Class of 2024	Ben Whaley

Current faculty include Fr. Tim Sean Youmans (Scripture), Deacon Dion Crider (Church History), and Steve Orwig (Church History), in addition to presentations by clergy and others from throughout the Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,
Steve Orwig
Dean, Oklahoma Iona School of Formation

Ministry to the Campus

- Wednesday evening Eucharist/dinner. An informal Eucharist (at 7PM) held at the Canterbury Center followed by a meal more often than not provided by a St Andrew's parishioner. Attendance has averaged 10-12
- Sunday evening fellowship. We meet at the Canterbury Center 7PM to discuss current issues, the role faith plays in our public and private lives, and whatever else comes up. We share a meal provided by a St Andrew's parishioner before closing our evening with compline, evening prayer, or night prayer.
- A place to meet and study. At any given moment, chances are we have students hanging out, studying, eating leftovers, chatting with the chaplain about all sorts of things, catching up on their favorite shows on Netflix, playing ping pong or pool, or even taking a nap. Our location is perfect for those with breaks in their daily schedule.
- Hosting meetings. Hospitality is becoming a central focus for our ministry, not just for Episcopalians from across the state and beyond and their friends from other faith backgrounds, but we also are striving to be a welcoming place for the larger campus and Stillwater community. Currently we host the monthly meeting of Stillwater's PFLAG chapter, and are in discussion with other groups to facilitate meeting spaces for their organizations. We occasionally host the women of the Saudi Student association, who like to meet at the Canterbury Center as our glass brick affords them the privacy to meet and let their hair down.
- Ashes to Go. While we normally offer Ashes to go on campus, our to the pandemic (and ridiculously cold temps) we did not offer ashes this year.Lights on Stillwater. We have participated the last several years in this annual showcase of local businesses, churches, and campus organizations. It's a great opportunity to introduce ourselves to new students. This year we handed out cups and stickers with the Canterbury Center logo, they were a hit!
- Finals week brunch. During finals week the past several semester the Canterbury Center has offered our "You're almost done with finals brunch!" The turnout has grown and it's been a great opportunity for our regular students to invite friends.
- Game night. Enough said.
- Bishop's visit. We are most grateful for Bishop Poulson visiting us this past year on March 3rd. He confirmed two students, recruited a diocesan employee and had a wonderful discussion with our students. This is our first official visit in many years and it means a tremendous amount to Fr Jeff and the students that +Poulson joined us.

Canterbury/St Andrew's shared ministry

- many students are active in the life of St Andrew's including helping with childcare, singing in the choir, attendance on Sunday mornings, and helping parishioners with needs that arise, such as moving furniture, helping in the yard and other tasks.
- We especially wish to thank, C&F Loftiss, K&S Miller, G. Frank, the Ladies Farr, J. Sutherland & K. Fellows, A.Bowen, V. Bloodgood, H. Hoart, K&S Dean, R&A Bodine, the Parsons family, M. Vinson, for providing meals for us.

Ministry Partners

- Thank you to the support and excitement from the people of St Andrew's as we continue our shared ministry.
- Churches represented from Diocese of Oklahoma:. So far this year we have students from St. Dunstan's Tulsa, St. James Wagoner, St. Paul's in OKC, St. Mary's Edmond, St. Matthew's Enid, St. Augustine in OKC, St. John's OKC, Emmanuel Shawnee, St. Andrew's in Stillwater, Christ Church Tulsa, and Trinity Tulsa. In addition we've welcomed students from St. Francis in Houston, and Holy Spirit in Houston, not to mention students of other denominations looking for a new home.
Please keep us in the loop when you have a graduate heading our way.

We'd love to hear from you!

St. Anselm's OU Report

It is hard to characterize this past year in the life of St. Anselm of Canterbury on the campus of the University of Oklahoma. It has been difficult. Every congregation has been affected by the pandemic, and this is especially true for us. Over the past couple of decades Canterbury has remained resolute in a few standards. Intentional community, a shared meal, worship, each an important expression of our life together and each has been tested and strained this past year. How do you do intentional community when you are unable to safely gather? How do you worship when the sacrament which feeds the spirit is a potential harm to the body? When a shared meal becomes a shared sickness?

This year began with none of those being possible outside of virtual gatherings. As the vaccine became widely available some of these restrictions were lifted and a sense of normalcy began to creep back into the building we call Canterbury. Having exclusively worshipped online through much of 2019, we finally began to gather in person once again on Easter. It was outside, and much was changed, and yet prayer and music and sacrament once again fed the young people who call St. Anselm home.

Things are different, there is still anxiety and tension in the air as we continue to suffer infection and sickness within our community, but there is also hope. Things are not "normal" but they are at least reminiscent of it. Numbers are lower than usual as students are slow to get back into the routine and opportunities to introduce Canterbury to a new generation of freshmen are limited, but the importance of this church and pastor in the lives of maturing Christians remains. Maybe more than ever. The Episcopal Church on the campus of The University of Oklahoma continues to push forward knowing that God is faithful, that Easter comes, and that resurrection is guaranteed.

Advance Report to 2021 Diocesan Convention

Prison Ministries

In support of the diocese's renewed mission focus on congregational vitality, changes to our Diocesan Prison Ministry strategy in 2021 were implemented. This new strategy includes ongoing support for the ministries of the several Prison Ministers, who are currently serving as chaplains, providing worship services, and offering other forms of pastoral care and ministry in the correctional institutions throughout the diocese. Additionally, our Diocesan Prison Missioner's focus will shift to service as consultant to our congregations that may be discerning whether this form of local mission outreach aligns with the congregation's gifts. The Diocesan Prison Missioner will provide information and guidance regarding the requirements for this special mission work and assist the congregational leadership in the development of appropriate ministry to the "least, lost, and lonely, who are incarcerated.

Is your congregation gifted and called to minister to those who are incarcerated?

There are a number of theological reasons why Christians are called to engage in ministries with and for the incarcerated. Some are biblical, for example:

"I was in prison and you visited me." - Matthew 25:36

Additionally, other reasons for engaging in ministries, not only for the incarcerated, but also with the incarcerated while honoring them as fellow human beings, are summarized in the affirmative answers we give to the following questions within our Baptismal Covenant, that we will do, with God's help:

"Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as your self?"

"Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?" - BCP, Page 305

Ministries with prisoners may take different forms, according to the methods chosen for addressing the isolation prisoners experience due to the correctional system's public safety strategy for sequestering them from society. Until recently, our Diocese's primary strategy has been to recruit people from our congregations who are individually gifted for one-to-one ministries with inmates, and send them to serve as Oklahoma Department of Corrections-badged volunteers authorized to lead worshipping communities gathering inside prisons and to provide rehabilitative programs behind bars.

However, not all of our congregations are gifted with people interested in serving so deeply inside our State's correctional system. For that reason, we are expanding our strategies toward finding additional methods for meeting the material and spiritual needs of prisoners. There may be ways your congregation can serve that will not require entering a prison.

In addition to these new opportunities for expanding our various congregations' ministries with prisoners, it is also important to celebrate the ministry opportunities in which we have participated over the past year, to the extent the limitations of the COVID-19 Pandemic have allowed us to do, as shown in the table below.

Ardmore Village 2020-2021

To say that life and work at Ardmore Village has been a challenge the past year and a half is an understatement! Being both an Independent Living and Assisted Living Community has presented unique challenges because of differing guidelines for each. Mask mandates, COVID-19 testing and vaccinations, residents and staff with COVID-19, quarantine and isolation from family and friends, staffing shortages and more have dominated our way of life.

Like many Senior Living facilities in Oklahoma, regardless of our Infection Control efforts COVID-19 found it's way in November 2020. Many residents and staff contracted COVID-19. Thankfully most overcame with three deaths attributed to COVID-19. Most of our residents chose to receive the COVID-19 vaccination, while a majority of our staff have chosen not to. That is the current debate – mandatory vaccinations for employees? If so, how many will leave and how will we manage since we already struggle with staffing? Prayers for The Lodge at Ardmore Village as well as all Senior Living Communities in Oklahoma are appreciated.

Through it all our residents have persevered. The isolation from family and friends was in many ways been more difficult than the virus. It was a great day in the Spring of this year when The Lodge could reopen for visitors and activities could resume on campus! Residents have returned to dining together and activities which have lifted spirits. We are all looking forward to the day that COVID-19 is a part of our history!

Report to the Episcopal Diocese of Oklahoma
Saint Simeon's Episcopal Home
Tulsa, Oklahoma
September 2021

Saint Simeon's Episcopal Home in Tulsa continues its tradition of excellent care and is vibrant and thriving in spite of these difficult times. We are the preferred community for men and women of all faiths who wish to live their later years in an environment of dignity, individuality and the highest possible level of independence.

Saint Simeon's currently offers multiple levels of care: Assisted Living, Long Term Care, Skilled Nursing and Rehab, and Memory Care. Saint Simeon's is home to more than 160 residents and over 200 employees.

Saint Simeon's is grateful for the guidance and support of Bishop Poulson Reed and the Episcopal Diocese of Oklahoma. And we are pleased to honor the retirement of Bishop Ed by naming the Resident Benevolent Fund in his honor. Saint Simeon's is especially grateful for the continued support of the Diocese. This support has allowed us to cover some increased operational expenses due the temporary suspension of admissions during the pandemic and the additional, ongoing costs associated with caring for the residents during this time.

At the end of 2020, Father Bill Holly retired after serving the Saint Simeon's community as Chaplain for 15 years. We will always be grateful for his loving care for our residents and community. Reverend Susanne Methven has now joined our team as Chaplain. Susanne came to us with a breadth and depth of experience in parish ministry—focused on pastoral care, Christian Foundation, and outreach.

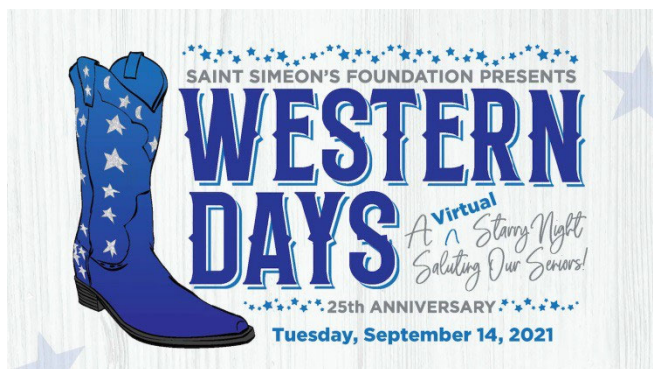

Saint Simeon's has continued to grow the Parkinson's program that was originally started in early 2017. The community currently serves numerous Parkinson's residents who receive specific services through expertly trained staff. These services range from one-on-one exercisesessions to customized medication programs. The residents enjoy weekly aquatic classes in thewarm water pool which enables them to move more freely.

The Parkinson's Foundation of Oklahoma has an office on the Saint Simeon's campus, and through this partnership with the Parkinson's Foundation, Saint Simeon's offers more services too residents as well as people throughout eastern Oklahoma. Saint Simeon's is proud to be a member of the Struther's Parkinson's Care Network.

The community also provides Skilled Memory Care which allows people with dementia or Alzheimer's disease the opportunity to receive skilled therapy and nursing following a qualifyinghospital stay. This service is in high demand in the Tulsa market as there are only 4 facilities in Oklahoma that are licensed for this type of care.

Saint Simeon's is also a proud member of Dementia Friendly Tulsa and a sponsor of the Walk toEnd Alzheimer's annual fundraiser for the Alzheimer's Association.

The 25th Annual Western Days will be held September 14, 2021. While there was great hope tohave a live in-person event this year, the decision was made to move to a live virtual event for the health and safety of the community. Thisyear's theme is "A Virtual Starry Night Saluting Our Seniors" and will celebrate thelast 25 years of fundraising by honoring our residents and past Western Days chairs. Thanks to the tremendous efforts of the Western Days Steering Committee and thegenerous donations of many, the event hasalready raised over $500,000 to date.

August 2021

Dear Diocesan Convention,

Holland Hall's Centennial celebrations have begun, and our 100th year finds us also celebrating our 63rd as an Episcopal school serving future leaders for Tulsa, the nation, and the world!

With a new strategic plan in place and the successful conclusion of our Covid year, where our community remained safe and on-campus for the vast majority of the year, we are delighted to continue to share the Episcopal tradition of an open, inclusive community that values the dignity and worth of every human being in our midst with our students, their families, and the broader Tulsa community.

One hundred years ago, Holland Hall's Founding Fathers contacted an outstanding progressive educator with Dutch ancestry. Ms. Winnifred Schureman answered their call and made the bold commitment to help begin a school in Tulsa. Their avowed purpose was to "place a fully equipped Preparatory School of the highest standing where each student may receive individual attention, within reach of any citizen of Tulsa." That purpose remains true, and our work to ensure equity and access for promising students deepens each year.

Holland Hall now serves over 1000 students from 41 different zip codes and several different countries. Our faculty come from all over the nation to connect and engage students on their level. Finally, our arts and athletics programs remain robust, competitive, distinct in their individual approaches, and core to the overall student experience. Our core values of Honesty, Trust, Hard Work, Respect, Kindness, and Self-Regulation continue to reveal themselves in our students and all the conversations surrounding their development.

We are so thankful for our Episcopal affiliation and the distinct, meaningful conversations that arise because of our approach. Much is to be celebrated in the relationship, the most important of which is our combined capacity to help children develop a meaningful philosophy of life and to have a servant's heart.

With warmest regards,

J.P. Culley
Head of School

2021 Annual Report to the Diocesan Convention

Oak Hall Episcopal School – The Way School Should Be!

A Prayer for Young Persons

God our Father, you see your children growing up in an unsteady and confusing world: Show them that your ways give more life than the ways of the world, and that following you is better than chasing after selfish goals. Help them to take failure, not as a measure of their worth, but as a chance for a new start. Give them strength to hold their faith in you, and to keep alive their joy in your creation; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(Book of Common Prayer, p.829)

Suffice it to say that last year was a year like no other! The School's two main priorities were to keep our School community safe and have in-person classes. COVID-19 protocols were tested during our summer camps, and the students returned to the new school year under the directions of "Welcome Back!" This document detailed the policies & protocols for the start of school. It was designed by the School's COVID-19 Task Force and approved by the Board of Trustees.

There were many changes to the day to day operation of the School; some were big, and some were small, but all were based on the guidelines of the CDC. Parent and guest entry into the School was restricted, and mask wearing was a requirement for everyone in the building. Social distancing was also a key component of our protocols.

Corporate worship is one of the hallmarks of Episcopal schools, and COVID-19 dramatically impacted our daily Chapel services. Each day one or two grades would take turns at attending the morning service in person, while the other grades participated via Zoom. While not ideal, it did enable us to be together in some way, shape, and form. On Wednesdays, Father Mike continued to officiate "Big" Chapel and the Early Childhood Chapel, as well as teaching Christian Education to the Middle School. Mrs. Karlie Harper, a parent and St. Philip's Youth Director, taught Godly Play on Fridays to Early Childhood through First Grade. We are ever grateful for their contribution to the spiritual life of the School.

The support of our families and the wider community was truly overwhelming. Our Annual Fund exceeded the dollar goal, and importantly saw an increase in the percentage of parent participation. The Southern Oklahoma Memorial Foundation not only matched the Diocesan contribution to our needs-based Financial Aid program, but gave some additional funds to help us retain students whose families had been adversely affected by the pandemic.

In the closing months of the school year, local COVID-19 numbers were in decline, and in response to this, we allowed parents and guests (wearing masks, and with socially distanced seating) to attend the end of year Dinner Theatre, Awards Assembly, as well as the Talent Show. We also held an evening Eighth Grade Graduation at St. Philip's. Families, guest, trustees, and faculty & staff attended, but the change in time meant the student body did not attend. Reduced numbers again allowed for better social distancing during the ceremony.

With only minor disruptions due to the need for students or faculty & staff to quarantine or isolate, the vast majority of the school year was held "in-person". I am in awe of the resilience of our students and their families, as well as the grit and determination of the faculty and staff to continue to provide an outstanding educational experience, no matter the obstacles.

Respectfully submitted,

Ken Willy

Headmaster

Annual Report to the eighty-third Diocesan Convention

September 2021

Since our founding in 1947 by the Rt. Reverend Thomas Casady, Casady School, has enjoyed the many benefits and blessings of being an Episcopal Day School. We continue to value and appreciate the Rt Reverend Poulson Reed's support and the Diocese of Oklahoma. Our mission calls for us to develop excellence, confidence, and integrity in students and prepare them with the skills and knowledge that are the foundation for success. We are grateful for the many Episcopalians around this great State who continue to lift our Institution in prayer and who continue to support us financially; for all of you, we say -- Thank you!.

100% of the class of 2021 will be attending one of 38 different colleges and universities. 65% of our students will be attending schools outside Oklahoma, with 97% receiving more than one offer and 95% being admitted to a top-choice college. This year 77% of the students received a scholarship, with 15 attending university honors colleges or programs. We had three National Merit Finalists and one National Merit Scholar. Finally, seven members of the senior class will participate in 3 different intercollegiate sports.

This year we began the year in COVID-19, and our focus was to maintain in-person learning for the entire year. We are happy to report that we accomplished that goal. We began the school year with 92% of students attending in-person and 8% remotely. We finished the year with 98% in-person and only 2% learning remotely. Overall we invested more than $1m in preventative measures, from plexiglass, MERV13 filters, HEPA air filters in every room, and Ionizing HVAC in larger spaces. We co-horted and de-densified as much as possible. This caused us to only allow one grade per day to eat in the dining hall and attend Chapel in-person. Everyone else watched chapel in rooms and also ate in the rooms. Additionally, our sports conference did not allow for participation in the Fall but began to find ways to compete starting in the Winter and Spring.

Attached to this letter is a COVID-19 summary of activities for the 20-2021 school year. Please see attached summary of the year.

A summary of this past year Despite the unusual circumstances we found ourselves in due to COVID, we found ways to implement a new curriculum. One of the most significant changes was in the use of technology. We invested nearly $1m in infrastructure to pivot to one-to-one iPads in the Lower Division. We then spent the year evaluating the right technology teaching tool for the Middle Division. In addition, we launched Foundations, a K-2 phonetics learning platform, and a new Lower Division science curriculum.

In closing, we would like to share the link to view the biographies of our newest team members. Please click here to be directed to our web page highlighting our newest team members.

Alternatively, I have included them attached to this report if you cannot go to the web link.

I want to thank all of you for supporting our great School with your prayers. I ask that you continue to pray for our faculty and students' safety as we press forward with "in-person" learning again this school year.

Faithfully,

Nathan L.

ST. CRISPIN'S

CONFERENCE CENTER + CAMP

St. Crispin's Conference Center + Camp

Nestled in the rolling oak covered hills of Seminole County, St. Crispin's Conference Center + Camp is loved by all who visit. A centerpiece of the mission of the Episcopal Diocese of Oklahoma, St. Crispin's has provided a restful place for individuals and groups for over 50 years.

St. Crispin's Mission is to provide a peaceful space for all guests where they will experience hospitality, nourishment and an opportunity to grow in the grace of God.

The St. Crispin's Leadership Team includes:

Co-Executive Directors - Joanne Kovac-Roberts & Mike Roberts

Program Director/Summer Camp Director – Beth Gaertner

Food Service Director - Jenny Oxley

Maintenance Director - Josh Roberson

Intern – Tom Willoughby

Under the St. Crispin's protective umbrella, we host a myriad of programs: Summer Camp, IONA, Women's and Men's retreats, Mt. Biking Clinics and Races, Leadership Oklahoma, School Board retreats, etc... St. Crispin's unique environment offers a respite from busy schedules and provides a place free from the pressures of day-to-day business, where creativity can blossom and you can become your best self again. On over 475 unspoiled acres of lakes, hills and forest, you can enjoy spiritual reflection and time with God during an experience never to be forgotten.

Working with youth and providing kids with meaningful, fun and life changing experiences has long been a focus of St. Crispin's. A large number of past and current leaders in the Episcopal Diocese of Oklahoma credit their experiences at St. Crispin's with helping to shape their life choices and career paths. There was much excitement as we served over 350 youth from across the state as St. Crispin's Summer Camp re-opened during the 2021 Season. St. Crispin's continues to host camps and events for other churches, organizations, and University groups from across the state.

Even with the previous year's interruption of guest groups due to Covid-19, St. Crispin's was able to continue hosting Activity Day and Weekend programs where individuals and families could be in a fun, safe, and socially distant environment. In addition, St. Crispin's was able to bring in new clientele from Oklahoma, and surrounding states, by hosting the Shred and Tread 6 Hour Endurance Mountain Bike and Trail Running races, and the Oklahoma Gravel Growler – an 80 mile Gravel Bike race which started and ended at St. Crispin's.

Fall 2021 will be an exciting time as we prepare to welcome new groups and organizations to our facility for the first time. As we hoped, with this expansion of Oakerhater Lodge we are able to reach out and host more guests. It means that the heart of St. Crispin's, and its mission, will continue to grow in service, ministry, and holy hospitality for all.

Mike and I continue to feel blessed to live and work in an environment where we can use our talents. We strive to serve you and provide a setting that will encourage your personal relationships, nourish your body and soul, and nurture your spiritual growth.

So whether you grew up at St. Crispin's, attend retreats in one of the lodges, or have never had the opportunity to stay, we hope that you plan to visit soon and experience not only the beauty of St. Crispin's, but see and experience the improvements and activities. St. Crispin's is a place for people of all ages to grow, play, and participate in Christian formation in a safe and nurturing community. We will work hard to provide a quality, positive environment for all who choose to attend. Come experience the ministry of St. Crispin's and feel the magic of our conference center - your home away from home.
