END TIMES - OCTOBER 3

Political polarization, and cancel culture have crept into Christianity to the point that many Christians have a binary world view. We use binary descriptions to define people as either good or bad, like: conservative or liberal, Democrat or Republican, etc. But is God binary in His view of us—loves good people and hates bad people? How Jesus defined "perfection" should cause us to question the myth of the binary God and how we view each other.
