We understand that Tulsa Adventist Academy is a non-profit organization that relies on sales of service to pay for the service it provides. Because of that, we understand that it costs Tulsa Adventist Academy more than the amount we pay in tuition to educate the student(s) we hope to enroll at Tulsa Adventist Academy. We understand that it is our responsibility to pay fully for the services offered through Tulsa Adventist Academy. We also understand that the Student Aid committee hopes to see as much effort on our part as possible to secure funding for our child(ren). Because of our desire to have our student(s) enrolled at Tulsa Adventist Academy, we have approached the following people about financial assistance for the 2017-2018 school year.

Please list family members or friends you have talked to about helping to fund tuition for your student(s) for the 2017-2018 school year.

CHURCH COMMITMENT:

Although we as a church understand that we do not have a responsibility to cover tuition for any student at Tulsa Adventist Academy, we understand that a big part of our mission to our young people is in educating them to become disciples of Christ through a daily focus on Him. For this reason, we, as a church, commit to purposefully inviting our congregation to participate in the ministry of Tulsa Adventist Academy and its Student Aid program. This could include, but is not limited to, fundraiser activities, bulletin information regarding need, up front appeals, focused prayer and attention, and budgeting for worthy student needs.

Preparing Students for Heaven and Earth.

Dear _____,

My name is _____ and I am writing you concerning a sponsorship opportunity to help me enroll in a Christian private school. My desire is to attend Tulsa Adventist Academy whose mission is, "Preparing Students for Heaven and Earth." My school is dedicated to preparing students not just for successful careers and lives but also to be missionaries who are of service to others. As private school is expensive, I am seeking help from others that may be willing to help contribute toward tuition so that I can get a great education as well as be exposed to a closer relationship with our Savior Jesus Christ. By helping me with my tuition I am willing to commit to you that I will continue with my portion of the bill along with keeping my grades at or above a C average. I am also committed to demonstrating responsible Christian like behavior at school. I have committed to following the guidelines of the school handbook and realize that if I let you down in any of these areas that I may forfeit my opportunity to benefit from your financial support. The school is a nonprofit organization and would be happy to issue you a donation receipt for donations made to a general worthy student fund or if you wish to contribute directly to me they would be happy to accept your contributions.

Below are the details outlining different sponsorship levels:

- $6,700 - Gold Medal: Cost of one student full ride
- $2,233 - Silver Medal: Support with the 1/3 program
- $670 - Bronze Medal: Give a student a month worth of support
- $_____ - Just for you: This is the perfect amount from a loving heart to another

If you would like to help out but have questions or would like to be unique in your efforts, please give the school a call at 918-834-1107 and ask for either the principal or the treasurer and we would be happy to help in any way possible.

Sincerely,

_____ Student Signature
