Groups Questions

1. Describe the spiritual environment in which you grew up. How did your parents influence your faith? Do you see a lasting impact of that today?
2. Scientifically speaking, why are habits hard to break? What does this say about the importance of creating habits for children?
3. Read Deuteronomy 6:1-3. Why is it important to God that we obey him? What are the multi-generational aspects of this promise?
4. Read Deuteronomy 6:4. Why is it important that you worship God without rivals in your home? What are the things that compete for your allegiance (i.e. sports, work, etc.)?
5. Read Deuteronomy 6:6. How can you allow God's word to sink into your heart? Why is it important to have a Biblical worldview--to know what you believe and why you believe it?
6. What can you implement into your family routine this week so that God can become a part of your family reality?
