Groups Questions

1. What did your parents get right with raising you? What are things you emulate in your view of parenting? What's one area where you approach parenting differently than your parents?
2. Why is it helpful to think in terms of “stages” when raising kids?
3. Which of the principles was most insightful for you? Which do you need to pay more attention to?
4. Parents with an “owner” mentality are driven by what they want for and from their children. Isn't that a good thing? Why or why not?
5. What are some practical things that you can do to remember that your role as a parent is to represent the interests and character of God to your children?
6. For you, what was the best part of this series?
