Groups Questions

1. Have you ever been honored for doing something noteworthy? Have you ever willingly done a difficult task, knowing you would not receive any honor for it?
2. We're introduced to Deborah in Judges 4:4-6. What does the Scripture say about her? What was her calling? Can you name anything that wasn't part of her calling? What are some reasons why Christians can have a hard time accepting this for what it is?
3. Barak took a big risk, even though he was told he would not be honored for it. Have you ever taken a risk in obeying the Lord? What happened?
4. Why do you think God likes to work through unlikely heroes?
5. How has God gifted you? Be honest. It's not boasting if you acknowledge how God has equipped you. Have others confirmed this gifting in you?
6. How has God called you to make a difference? What's the next step you need to take?
