Glory

John 17:1

After Jesus said this, he looked toward heaven and prayed: "Father, the hour has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may glorify you.

John 17:2-3

For you granted him authority over all people that he might give eternal life to all those you have given him. Now this is eternal life: that they know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent.

John 17:4-5

I have brought you glory on earth by finishing the work you gave me to do. And now, Father, glorify me in your presence with the glory I had with you before the world began.

John 16:14

He will glorify me because it is from me that he will receive what he will make known to you.

- If God is Triune, then God is for the glory of God.
- If God is Triune, then love is at the heart of reality.

Genesis 1:26-27

Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness... So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them.

- You will never be happy unless you live to glorify God.

John 17:1

After Jesus said this, he looked toward heaven and prayed: "Father, the hour has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may glorify you.

John 17:5

And now, Father, glorify me in your presence with the glory I had with you before the world began

John 12:23-24

Jesus replied, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly I tell you, unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains only a single seed. But if it dies, it produces many seeds.

- The glory of God is revealed in the shame of the cross.

John 17:24

Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am, and to see my glory, the glory you have given me because you loved me before the creation of the world.

- Your purpose in life is to see the glory of God.
