

Mexico Mission Trip 2019

Dear

2019

Have you ever smiled at someone and changed their moment, or given of your time and self and changed their life? This is what I hope to do with a week of my life this Summer. There are thousands of orphans in Baja, Mexico and thousands more families struggling to provide the bare necessities for survival, especially in today's economy when tourism and construction have slowed tremendously. Children are dropped off at local orphanages daily not for lack of want or love, but out of desperate love because their families can no longer afford to raise them. Children as young as five are left in charge to care for their younger siblings all day while their parents go to work. These people are much like us, hard working, full of love, dreams and creativity, but because of Mexico's cyclical poverty, this is their sad reality.

In June or July of 2019, I have an opportunity to serve with the children and families in La Mision, Tijuana and Guadalupe Valle, Mexico in very tangible ways. I will be going to Mexico with an organization called Be2Live. We will be staying and working at the Door of Faith Orphanage, home to over 100 children from infants through college students. We will also be working with Open Arms Daycare in La Mision. Open Arm's goal is to keep children out of orphanages and off the streets by providing a no cost childcare for working families. We may also spend a day working with the people who are living on the old dump in Tijuana. We are partnering with these organizations who will continue the work in the community to assist and empower the Mexican people far after we leave. Our projects may include building a house, painting, pouring cement, activities with the children and delivering community boxes of much needed basic supplies to families in the community.

The cost of my trip is $1,250 including airfare. Would you consider partnering with me in this service opportunity by supporting me with an amount of $10-$100 or more. Any donation would be greatly appreciated. Please return your tax-deductible donation in the enclosed self-addressed envelope and make checks payable to: "Bible Fellowship Church". I will be sure to share my experience with you after I return! Your donation will go directly toward my cost. Any money I raise over the cost of my trip will help fund the work projects, scholarships and further the mission of Be2Live. All donations need to be received by June 3rd, 2019.

If you would like more information about this trip please contact: Be2Live.org, Phil or Mindy Steiner at email: info@be2live.org

Thank you so much for your time and for supporting my journey on this amazing experience.

Gratefully,
