The gap between communities that are surviving and those that are thriving can be huge. Our mission, as a faith-rooted nonprofit organization, is to bridge that gap by providing resources & opportunities for people to discover and be who they were created to be and therefore, become fully alive. When they do, their communities no longer just survive. They thrive.

The North American Mission Board exists to work with churches, associations and state conventions in mobilizing Southern Baptists as a missional force to impact North America with the gospel of Jesus Christ through evangelism and church planting. We accomplish that through Send North America, our national strategy for mobilizing churches to plant churches and mobilizing church planters and other missionaries to assist with those efforts. Through Send Relief, the North American Mission Board is assisting churches in reaching people in need with practical help and the hope of the gospel.

For 85 of its 100 years, Christar has been engaging individuals and churches throughout the U.S. to send workers to plant churches around the world. Our mission, vision, core values and approach to ministry form a strong foundation to take the transformative message of Christ into communities where He is yet to be worshiped. Christar seeks to minister to the least-reached Buddhists, Hindus and Muslims.

We aim to assist Jewish people to become aware of the Jewish roots of the Christian Faith and how Jesus is their Messiah/Redeemer. Towards this end our personnel regularly reach out to Jewish people through a variety of ways. The ministry prints literature to help in this endeavor, as well as develops different outreaches to share the Messiah with Jewish people.

Little Lambs Inc.

At Little Lambs Inc., we see men and women in prison cells as the lost lambs whom Jesus leaves the flock to search for. Our vision is to lead these damaged and lost to a new and better life through salvation, repentance, and mentoring. Through our Little Lambs School of the Bible Disciple Training Course we teach the Word and Principles of God.
