Worshipping Together

I was glad when they said unto me: Let us go into the house of the Lord. Psalm 122:1

At last month's meeting of the session, the elders, in a unanimous decision, decided that we would not return to in-person gatherings at the church until January. As you can probably imagine, none of us found this a happy decision, but I think it is fair to say that we all believe it was a wise decision.

We all wish to return to worshipping together in our beautiful sanctuary, but the gift of virtual worship (and virtual bible studies and virtual PW circle gatherings and virtual committee meetings) have been a tremendous blessing for all who have participated. I join you in looking forward to being in our sanctuary to once more sing the Lord's praise, but till that happens, I am glad that on Sunday, October 4 at 5:00 p.m. we will have an outdoor prayer service. You can sign up for that outdoor service at trinpres.org.

I also want to remind you that on Sunday, October 11 at 10:30 a.m., we will join in a live service of Holy Communion. You can sign up to be part of that Zoom call at our website. If you have some type of bread and grape juice (or wine) ready for that service, you will be set to participate in this virtual service, as we join together while being at our homes.

Until we are gathered in one place together, please know that we are all still held in the arms of Christ's love. If I can be of help to you, please let me know.

We will get through this and get through it together. And soon, it will be together that we will enter the House of the Lord; because of that, I continue to work every day to keep

Hoping Big,

Gregory
