ORGAN PRELUDE

GREETING AND OPENING SENTENCES

OPENING PRAYER (Unison)

Bring us, O Lord God, at our last awakening into the house and gate of heaven, to enter into that gate and dwell in that house, where there shall be no darkness nor dazzling, but one equal light; no noise nor silence, but one equal music; no fears nor hopes, but one equal possession; no ends nor beginnings, but one equal eternity; in the habitations of your glory and dominion, world without end. Amen. John Donne (1572-1631)

PRAYERS OF THANKSGIVING

THE LORD’S PRAYER (Unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

You are invited to join members of the McKeithen Family for a time of conversation and refreshment in Stevenson Hall immediately following the Memorial Service.

ISAIAH 40:11

He shall feed his flock like a shepherd;
and He shall gather the lambs with His arm,
and carry them in His bosom,
and shall gently lead those that are with young.

MATTHEW 11:28, 29

Come unto Him,
all you that labour and are heavy laden,
and He shall give you rest.
Take His yoke upon you, and learn from Him;
for He is meek and lowly of heart;
and you shall find rest unto your souls.

One of Harold's stoles has been incorporated into the flower arrangement. The stole is a sign of Christian ministry and symbolizes the yoke of Christ that is taken in ordination.
