

Liar, Liar Small Group Questions - I'm Not Worthy

If you feel comfortable, talk about a time when you felt completely inferior. Maybe you were with rich people, smart people, cool people. Whatever.

How did you deal with it? Looking back, does it still feel weird or does it seem different now?

Read Luke 15:11-32.

In verses 11-16, what jumps out at you? How do you feel about this son in light of these verses?

Luke 15:17 is a pivotal verse. Why is that? What are some of the realizations at which the son arrives?

What do you think about the son's thought process in verses 18 and 19? What makes someone "worthy" to be a son or daughter?

Verse 20 is all about redemption. Talk about the tension between the son getting up and going to the Father and the Father running towards the son. How does that work with us and God?

In verse 21 the son repents. The Father never says, "I forgive you." Why?

Over a third of the story involves the older son. Remember, Jesus made this up. Why have the older son? What do you think Jesus is trying to convey?

Liar, Liar Small Group Questions - I'm Not Worthy

If you feel comfortable, talk about a time when you felt completely inferior. Maybe you were with rich people, smart people, cool people. Whatever.

How did you deal with it? Looking back, does it still feel weird or does it seem different now?

Read Luke 15:11-32.

In verses 11-16, what jumps out at you? How do you feel about this son in light of these verses?

Luke 15:17 is a pivotal verse. Why is that? What are some of the realizations at which the son arrives?

What do you think about the son's thought process in verses 18 and 19? What makes someone "worthy" to be a son or daughter?

Verse 20 is all about redemption. Talk about the tension between the son getting up and going to the Father and the Father running towards the son. How does that work with us and God?

In verse 21 the son repents. The Father never says, "I forgive you." Why?

Over a third of the story involves the older son. Remember, Jesus made this up. Why have the older son? What do you think Jesus is trying to convey?