Habakkuk 3:19 (AMP): The Lord God is my strength [my source of courage, my invincible army]; He has made my feet [steady and sure] like hinds' feet and makes me walk [forward with spiritual confidence] on my high places [of challenge and responsibility].

Each day will give rise to unforeseen mountains that you will be required to climb. Both the mountains and the necessity to summit them are inescapable in life. Though they present varying degrees of difficulty in the strategy and resources needed to traverse them, Habakkuk provides us with what must be foundational to our efforts. It's God Word on our climbing experiences.

Note what the Word of the Lord assures us of:

- "The Lord God is my strength, my source of courage, my invincible army." Climbing will exhaust our natural resources and demand supernatural input. Cliffs are no place for cowards and unlimited resources are available.

- "He has made my feet steady and sure like hinds' feet..." God has prepared the thing needed most for your climb; proper footing is critical to successful climbing.

- "...and makes me walk forward with spiritual confidence..." Practice moving forward in every detail of your life and circumstances no matter how limiting they may appear. Establish your confidence in God and on God.

- "...on my high places of challenge and responsibility." God, in His grace and mercy, has a provision for us even where the air may be thin.

Begin today to climb where you are and be certain to allow Him to go before you! .

Peace and blessings!
