Matthew 5:1-3 (NKJV) And seeing the multitudes, He went up on a mountain, and when He was seated His disciples came to Him. Then He opened His mouth and taught them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

In this famous sermon by Jesus, Himself, He gives us insight to not just who is blessed but how we can be blessed. His first six Words are a roadmap to God's blessings. "Blessed are the poor in spirit..." Christ is not addressing our economic, material or physical status. He addresses our perception of our spiritual condition.

The New Living Translation (NLT) says, "God blesses those who realize their need for Him."

The God's Word (GW) translation says, "God blesses those who recognize they are spiritually helpless."

The Contemporary English Version (CEV) says, "God blesses those who depend only on Him."

The New Century Version (NCV) says, "God blesses those who realize their spiritual poverty."

Psalms 146:5 (CEV) says, "The Lord God blesses everyone who trusts Him and depends on Him." It becomes very clear that God's Word is encouraging our recognition of our inadequacy to face life without Him.

So what do we do? Practice dependency on God by relying on:

- His wisdom, not your own
- His strength, not your own
- His timing, not your own
- His defense, not your own
- His wealth, not your own

Start right now and be blessed!
