

Special Speaker: Rev. Andre Mansoor

Message Summary: King David was known to have a heart that was unlike others. His heart was so famous, people started giving it a headline! As we enter a season of Thanksgiving and celebrations, we can find ourselves in need of rescue due to the absence of gratefulness. Today, we will discover some important points that will help us in our pursuit of a grateful heart.

The Pursuit of a Grateful Heart Colossians 3:15-17

1. A Grateful Heart: Knows when to give thanks.
2. A Grateful Heart: Brings health to those around it.
3. A Grateful Heart: Produces relationship, solidifies faith.
4. A Grateful Heart: Is one after God's own heart.

LifeGroup Questions

Begin It (5 min) – Open the meeting in praise and prayer to the Lord.

Open It (10 min) – Since last Sunday, in what ways have you been able to experience freedom in Jesus?

Explore It (60 min) – Review Sunday's sermon outline together and share any notes people have about the message. Make sure to also share any scriptures, words of prophecy, or testimony you may have come across or experienced from Sunday's services.

- 1.If you had a choice to have a heart like one of the people in the Bible, who would it be? Why?
- 2.What makes a grateful heart? What makes your heart grateful?
- 3.In today's current events, and in your own life, how can we keep a grateful heart?
- 4.In what ways do you think you could improve your health by having a grateful heart?
- 5.Do you believe that being full of thanksgiving for the little things could be contagious to those around you?
Explain your answer.

Apply It (15 min) – This Thanksgiving Day, how could you show gratefulness to your family in a new way? Take some time to think of some people who might not have the privilege of spending Thanksgiving with a family, and pray how the Lord could use you in their lives.