

Joel Kurz

Senior Pastor, The Garden Church

Joel Kurz currently serves as the senior pastor of The Garden Church in inner city Baltimore which he planted in 2008. Joel also serves as Director of ONE HOPE and adjunct professor of apologetics at Faith Theological Seminary. As a church planter passionate about urban ministry, ONE HOPE was launched in 2016 as a platform for further resourcing, equipping, and training urban church ministry with the goal of church planting in poor communities. His duties there include oversight, fundraising, curriculum development, and teaching. Evangelism is his passion along with raising up the next generation of pastors and leaders for the local church. Joel has additionally launched programs which focus on job training and youth work as tools for strategic evangelism. Joel and his wife, Jess, live with their four children in west Baltimore.

Rethinking Biblical Evangelism

Saturday, October 27, 2018 | 9 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Lancaster Bible College

Capital Seminary & Graduate School

7852 Walker Drive | Greenbelt, MD 20770

Christianity is being rejected. The church is increasingly called a tool of oppression. Others see the faith simply as regressive, outdated, and ineffective. Are you ready for the new questions being asked? Are you equipped for the hard work of evangelism which lays before us?

This seminar will equip you with the theology and practical tools necessary for evangelism today. Hear lessons learned and effective strategies developed on the ground while church planting in one of Baltimore's poorest neighborhoods. What we will discover is that while things change, God does not. The Gospel is still the power of God unto salvation for all who believe.
