Kicking Things Off

Given the current circumstances, what's been your biggest struggle this past week? What's been your greatest joy?

Getting Into It

Read Philippians 1:8-11

Part of our identity as the church, the people of God, is that we gather. Why is that so important?

Paul misses the Philippians. What did you miss the most this week about not gathering physically with your brothers and sisters at The Fields?

Paul was in some difficult circumstances, as were the Philippians, and he prays that their love might grow more and more. How had they loved him well up to this point?

How can our love for each other grow and be shown during difficult circumstances?

How is our love for each other so essential as followers of Jesus? (see John 13:35)

What are some practical ways that we can show love for our church family during our current circumstances?

As we grow in our knowledge of God, how does that impact our love for God and others?

What does the fruit of righteousness look like? (for example, see Gal. 5:22-23)

How is this produced in the life of a believer? (review Phil. 1:6, 1:11, 2:12-13)

The Parting Shot

Spend time praying for the needs mentioned above in "The Upper Room" section of the notes.
