A STUDY IN PHILIPPIANS

Community Group Questions May 10, 2020

It's Not About You Philippians 2:1-5

Kicking Things Off

What is the most selfless act someone has personally ever done for you?

Getting Into It

Read Philippians 2:1-5

What are the incredible benefits we have that are listed in verse one?

How do they relate to what we see in verse two?

How does our unity as a church serve to point others to the gospel?

Discuss how selfishness and empty conceit is the stark contrast of humbly regarding others as more important than ourselves.

Practically speaking, how do we regard others as more important than ourselves?
How do we look out for their interests as much as our own?

Why is this so important for the progress of the gospel and being good partners in the gospel?

What attitude/example do we see in Jesus when it comes to the needs of others?

The Parting Shot

What are some practical steps that our CG can take right now to make sure we are looking out for other people's interests as much as we are looking out for our own?
