Found In Him Philippians 3:9

Kicking Things Off

What was the best thing about your summer? What did you get to do? What happened? Who did you see? How did you grow?

Getting Into It

Read Philippians 3:7-11

So for review, what's going on in this part of the letter to the Philippians?

Now reread Phil. 3:9

The Bible refers to us as “being lost”. What does that mean? (see Rom. 3, Is, 53:6, Lk. 15:3-7, etc.)

What does it mean to “be found in Christ”?

Why might it be important to realize that God found you as opposed to you finding God?

How does our identity in Christ affect everything about us?

What does it mean to have the righteousness of God in Christ? Why is that so incredibly important?

The Parting Shot

What practical difference does it make that your righteousness is found in Christ and not in what you do?
