Judgment: God's Strange Work Nahum 2

Kicking Things Off

Thinking back over Nahum 1–2, what stands out to you as most significant regarding God and His character?

Getting Into It

Read Nahum 2:1–2. In these verses we have three different actors; the one who scatters is the Babylonian and Mede army, the one restored is Israel, and the ones who devastated were the Assyrians, i.e. Nineveh.

Now read Nahum 2:3–10. Here we have two of the actors again; the Babylonians (vv. 3–4), and Nineveh (vv. 5–10).

Read Nahum 2:11–13. These verses could picture the city generally or more likely the leaders specifically.

1. What about these passages in chapter 2, stands out to you?

At the end of his message, Forrest talked about several related things regarding God's judgment. With the time you have discuss the meaning of these questions and/or statements in relationship to God's judgment:

2. In Nahum how do we see the absolute surety of God's word (fulfilled prophecy)? (Psalm 12:6; 19:7; Proverbs 30:5)
3. Judgment is God's Strange Work (Isaiah 28:21). What does that mean?
4. Why don't we see God's judgment very often in history (2 Peter 3:9)?
5. God has not and does not change (Hebrews 13:7). How do you think this relate to his judgment of sin in the future?
6. It's a terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the living God (Hebrews 9:27; 10:31). Why is this so? For whom is this true?
7. God has provided a way to escape judgment. What is it? (John 5:24; 2 Corinthians 5:21). Review the main components of the gospel.

The Parting Shot

Have a time of closing prayer thanking God that we who have trusted Christ will not come into judgment. Pray for those you want to reach with the gospel.
