

Tuesday, June 16, 2026
Tuesday of the Eleventh Week
in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We read 1 Kings 21:17-29, Psalm 51, Mathew 5:43-48. "So be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect." How do we live into that perfection? We do so by learning from our life experiences, especially our mistakes. We learn to be perfect as we love and pray for our enemies. We learn to be perfect by greeting everyone and being kind to all. We are called to love everyone, even those we may not like. Ahab listened to God through Elijah and repented before God. God recognizes Ahab's repentance and will not bring evil upon him in his time, but in the reign of his son. Sometimes we need to repent for what past generations have done, as we pay the consequences for their actions. Forgiveness and love are today's lessons. When we stay on track and follow what Jesus teaches, then we are on the road to perfection. Stay focused and be open to the gift of the Holy Spirit's direction.

Peace,

MostRevKev

"Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned."

<http://www.usccb.org/>