Tuesday of the Thirteenth Week
in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate the First Holy Martyrs of the Holy Roman Church. We read Amos 3:1-8; 4:11-12, Psalm 5, and Matthew 8:23-27. Jesus calms the storm after the disciples wake him. He rebuked the disciples for having little faith. Jesus can calm the storms of our lives when we reach out. The winds will blow, and the waves will come over us, but with faith we can sustain in hope and life. God provides for the children of Israel in their challenges, but they fall back into their former ways. Jesus steadies us and steers us in the right and holy direction.

Peace,
