

Thursday, September 4, 2025
Twenty-Second
Week in Ordinary Time

Good Morning!

We read Colossians 1:9-14, Psalm 98, and Luke 5:1-11. Jesus sits in Peter's boat, as Peter was washing the nets, in order to preach to all the people gathered. After he was finished, he asked Peter to put out into the deep again and throw in their nets. After a long night and coming up short, Peter agreed to do so and caught an abundance of fish. Peter felt unworthy and asked that the Lord leave, yet Jesus blessed Peter, James and John and said, "Do not be afraid." Have you ever felt unworthy before the Lord? Sometimes we feel we are in the darkness yet with Jesus, we are in the light. Jesus forgives us our sins so we can follow Jesus and live into the call he has for all of us. Do not be afraid!

Peace,

MostRevKev

"The Lord has made known his salvation."

<http://www.usccb.org>