Twenty-Ninth
Week in Ordinary Time

Good Morning!

We celebrate Saint John Paul II. We read Romans 6:12-18, Psalm 124, and Luke 12:39-48. God's mercy and righteousness call us to be righteous and merciful. Being good stewards of what we have been given, and recognizing when we have not been, God trusts us with more. We await the return of the master of the house; we are prepared. We may have transgressed in the past, or we were ignorant, but today we know more and live accordingly. We must be prepared and, by being prepared, are released from the sins of the past and live. With what have you been entrusted? Are you being faithful with it?

Peace,

MostRevKev
