Thursday of the Thirty-First Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We read Philippians 3:3-8, Psalm 105, and Luke 15:1-10. When we realize what we have, we have in Jesus Christ, then we know that we too need to seek out the lost. We may not consciously do so everyday but we rejoice over one repentant sinner or someone we find who we have not seen for awhile. Who is missing in your life? Who could you reach out to and greet in the name of Jesus? Knowing Jesus is a great gift. We are called to share in the joy of finding the lost sheep or coin. Reach out to someone today or allow Jesus to find you, and carry you home.

Peace,

MostRevKev
